

Turosky, Steven

Steven Turosky, 86, of Bad Axe, formerly of Harbor Beach, passed away on Wednesday, June 28, 2000, at his home. He was born on April 30, 1914, in Kenosha, Wisc., son of the late John and Mary (Prokoff) Turosky. He married Florence Gewont on Feb. 12, 1937, in Angola, Ind. She preceded him in death on Dec. 17, 1977. Mr. Turosky and his wife owned and operated the Bluewater Lanes in Harbor Beach for 10 years. He was a member of Zion Lutheran Church in Harbor Beach and the Harbor Beach American Legion. He served in the U.S. Army during World War II. He enjoyed coin collecting and was known for charming those he met with his sense of humor. He is survived by a son, Ivan Turosky and his wife, Jan McCrea-Turosky, of Saline; a daughter, Maryanne Neeb and her husband, John, of Bad Axe; six grandchildren, B. Jay, Kala and Leah Neeb of Bad Axe, and Steven, Anna and Nicholas Turosky of Saline; and two sisters, Berniece Clawson and Harriett Lemke of Racine, Wisc. He was preceded in death by four sisters, Josephine, Helen, JoAnne and Sophie. Funeral services will take place at 11 a.m. Saturday, July 1, 2000, at the Kaufman Funeral Home in Bad Axe. Officiating will be the Rev. Mark E. Girardin, pastor of Zion Lutheran Church in Harbor Beach. Visitation will be 7 to 9 p.m. tonight, 3 to 9 p.m. Friday, and from 10 a.m. until the time of services Saturday at the funeral home. Memorials may be given to Zion Lutheran Church or to the memorial of the donor's choice.
