This matter came on for the Court’s independent review and analysis of the issues, appropriate rules of law applicable to the issues in this case, and the Court’s review and analysis of the Magistrate’s Decisions filed in this case pursuant to Civ.R. 53(E) on the December 29, 2017.

The Court finds that the parties in this case have not caused to be filed any objections to the Magistrate’s Decision of December 29, 2017. Upon consideration of the Magistrate’s Decision, the Court determines that there is no error of law or defect on the face of the Magistrate’s Decision.

The Court further finds that the Magistrate’s Decision contains sufficient findings of fact and conclusions of law to allow this Court to make its own independent analysis of the issues and to apply the appropriate rules of law in making its final judgment entry in this matter.

Therefore, pursuant to Civ.R. 53(E)(4), the Court shall adopt the Magistrate’s Decision of December 29, 2017 with its conclusions and findings.

The Court therefore ORDERS that Plaintiff’s Motion for Temporary Restraining Order and Preliminary Injunction are DENIED.

The Court further ORDERS that Plaintiff’s Complaint shall be DISMISSED pursuant to Civ. R. 12(B)(6).

This is a final appealable judgment entry. No just cause for delay.

Pursuant to Civ.R. 58(B), the Clerk of Courts shall serve upon all parties notice of this judgment and its date of entry on the Journal.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
