

Name: Gerald James Ross

Age: 92

Hometown: Caseville

Funeral Date: Not Available

Date of Birth: October 12, 1928

Date of Passing: November 13, 2020

Funeral Home: Champagne Funeral Chapel

Funeral Information

A private grave side service will be Tuesday afternoon at Caseville Twp Cemetery. Champagne Funeral Chapel is handling the arrangements.

Family of the Deceased

Gerald is survived by his wife of 70 years Doris; daughter Cindy (Dannie) Jeffers of Elkton and son Harvey (Taffaney) Ross; grandchildren: Amy (Dan) Radomski, Jamie (Becky) Jeffers, Shane (Amy) Ross, Ryan (Jennifer) Ross, Bryant (Jessica) Ross, Alexander (Amanda) Ross, Acelenn, Denton and Aliyah Ross; great-grandchildren Raylee (Collin) Kuhn, Jenna, Ashley, Nickolas and Nathan Radomski, Mikayla Ross, Kaitlynn (Anthony) Ross, Logan, Brandon, Aiden, Samuel, Tucker and Jovie Mae; great-great grandson Riley Jones; and extended family: Caitlyn (Walter) Vanhouten, daughter Layla, Samantha, Abigail and Sophie Mattice. He was preceded in death by his brothers Royal and Ronald Ross, and sister Phyllis St. Clair.

Biography

Gerald James Ross, 92, of Caseville, passed away Friday, November 13, 2020 under hospice care. Gerald was born October 12, 1928 in Flint to the late James and Viola (Bingham) Ross. He graduated from Elkton High School in 1947. He began dating Doris Huff in high school, and they were married September 9, 1950 at the Owendale RLDS Church. He sailed one season on the Great Lakes and decided that was not for him. He then worked 10 years as a park ranger at Sleeper State Park, later working at Caseville Oven and finally at Active Industries in Sebawaing. He was a mink rancher and fur buyer, and was well known in the area for being a beekeeper. He was a priest of the RLDS (now Community of Christ Church). Gerald built and played 24 hammered dulcimers. He looked forward to Friday night fish fry's in Bad Axe.