NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC:

Work sessions can be vehicles for addressing major issues more effectively. They can also provide opportunities for the Trustees to focus on long-term decisions rather than the day-to-day management issues that confront the Village. Presumably they also make regular sessions more productive and shorter. Goal-setting, budget review or major development proposals are examples of long-term decisions. Work sessions are intended to provide opportunities for the Trustees to study difficult issues, gather and analyze information, and clarify problems.

The public must be given an opportunity to attend and address the Trustees, but rules governing public participation will be enforced, and those in attendance should be made aware of the purpose of this meeting, which is to study issues, not to take action. The Village Board of Trustees hold work sessions for difficult issues, and no formal decision is made except in a regular session.
