

Signs

The Programmable Electronic Message sign in front of the library will be used to promote our resources, programs and activities. Requests to post non-library events or personal messages will be denied but patrons may submit fliers to be posted on the bulletin board above our drinking fountains, pending staff approval. Fliers promoting specific events will remain on our board until the event. Fliers without a specific date will be stamped and remain on our board for three weeks.