Course Old Barnstable (70.4 /127)
Weather Sunny and wonderful

It was a top ten weather day on the Cape. Another great course although still no sand in any bunker - not sure there is any on the Cape. Jim Rinaldi gets an easy two shot win. The four DGA men won more than half of the prize money even though there were 16 people in the tournament. Not sure they will invite us back. We learned some new golf rules and competitions. One we'll recommend on a future trip and one we won't. They played a game of cards each day that was based on your number of putts. A one putt gets you a card, a two putt nothing, a three putt you put $1 in the pot, four putt $2 and so on. You track this each hole. Only putts on the green count. Each night you get your cards and pay up....Min won $53 the first night with seven cards. Rinaldi had 10 cards both nights and won nothing. The other rule was hit two balls out of bounds, proceed to the 100 yard marker, take your 'drop' and hit near the green, but not on to save yourself the first putt. We were playing stableford so they were out of the hole anyway, but was interesting or crazy to watch.
