

ALBERT N. GOOD

1916 - 1996

Albert Nelson Good, 80, of Pigeon and formerly of Bad Axe, passed away Tuesday, Dec. 17 at Huron Memorial Hospital in Bad Axe.

Mr. Good was born July 16, 1916 in Brookfield Township near Owendale, the son of the late Israel and Phoebe (Hinton) Good. He was a member of the Owendale Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. He attended Owendale School and was a graduate of Gagetown High School Class of 1935. He was employed with Grand Trunk Railroad, farmed with his father in Brookfield Township and worked as a security guard for a number of years.

Mr. Good enjoyed visiting with family and friends, and was an avid sports fan and was a member of the Elkton Independent Baseball League as a pitcher.

Surviving are 19 nieces and nephews; one sister-in-law Ellen Good of Bedford, Iowa; and one brother-in-law, Floyd Ziehm of Owendale.

He was preceded in death by two sisters, Madeline Ziehm, retired Lt. Cmdr. Marguerite Good; two brothers, Edmund Good, Sr., and retired Col. Bruce Alexander Good.

Funeral services were held Friday, Dec. 20 at MacAlpine Funeral Home in Bad Axe. Mr. Ellis Gardner, Elder of the Owendale RLDS, officiating, with burial in the Grant Township Cemetery near Owendale.

An expression of sympathy may be made to the organization of the donor's choice.

---