

Georgina Polanco Castillo, MD earned her medical degree at the Universidad Nacional Pedro Henriquez Ureña in the Dominican Republic, in 2008, graduating with honors. She completed her Internal Medicine residency at Michigan State University in Grand Rapids, Michigan, and was a fellow in Endocrinology, Diabetes, and Metabolism at the University of Cincinnati in Ohio.

Dr. Polanco Castillo is board certified in both Internal Medicine and Endocrinology. She enjoys all aspects of her specialty and her goal is to help her patients achieve a healthy lifestyle and feel their best.

Her hobbies include hiking, running, and traveling with her family. Dr. Polanco is fluent in Spanish and English.