JoeAnn reported re: search for County Chair. No one has made a commitment yet. Patrick Antwi is still considering the position.

NEW BUSINESS:

Andie Ho suggested a new position of Social Media Director.

Discussion: John Adams wonders if it would be a useful position. pros and cons of approaches to social media. It was decided we must have a cohesive plan to move forward and try to reach those we have not yet reached. JoeAnn Anderson, Zenna Smith, Frank Fair, and David Landman all participated. Suggested Andie Ho form committee with John Adams, Amanda Louie, and Nick Ransford. Zenna Smith suggested defined guidelines.

Andie Ho requested $50 to register for the Cinco de Mayo event. Volunteers are needed to work our booth.

Andie suggested the club enter a float in the Juneteenth parade. John Adams volunteered to provide a trailer. Andie's friend will help.

Connie Landman asked about who was responsible for arranging the office area. Discussion followed. Everyone agreed the new office set-up was effective. Zenna Smith volunteered to be in charge of Hospitality

Steve requested donations for John Holcomb event at SHSU with Mike Yawn.

Dorothy reminded members to always carry our own bags and rather than using plastic bags. She showed us covers for food bowls made of beeswax. She encouraged us all to not use clean plastic wrap. Kroger will take all plastic bags. James Patton asked how we could get local, state, and federal governments to participate in recycling. More discussion among group.

Refreshments provided by Zenna Smith.
Meeting adjourned 6:45 pm.
