

WHEN WAS THE LAST TIME

By John Lipinski

When was the last time you were kissed, how do you feel, I think you're lonely
Do you recall a time like this, when you were his one and only
Do you wonder, what you missed, do you dream or fantasize
When was the last time you were kissed, I'm right here, so, close your eyes

Remembering a time or two, when you were holding someone new
It felt so good your body tingled, dancing on that ballroom floor
He held you closely in his arms, he smiled at you, & you were charmed
It had been so long you might've quivered, anticipating what's in store

When was the last time you were kissed, are you afraid to give your heart
Could be the truth, but I insist, when you give in, your lips will part
Let me show you what you missed, passion lives, you'll recognize
When was the last time you were kissed, I'm right here, now close your eyes

Piano solo – half verse

When was the last time you were kissed, how do you feel, I think you're lonely
Can you recall a time like this, when you were his one and only
Do you wonder what you missed, do you dream or fantasize
When was the last time you were kissed, I'm right here, so, close your eyes
So come alive, for love exists, & I'm standing here, close your eyes
