Welcome Back to School!

Long Island Children's Museum Visit

The Long Island Children's Museum provided a free outreach program, "Build It", for our school-age program. The children had a chance to hear about and explore the scientific principles and physical forces behind structures such as bridges, towers, and domes. They had the opportunity to construct their own freestanding structure out of modeling clay and different materials. It was so much fun!

Thank you to the LICM for some awesome experiences this summer!

Room 61 Celebrates the First Day of School!

The children in Room 61, along with their teacher, Kristina Lanza, enjoyed the first few days back at school by posing in their first day frame and making an apple craft after listening to the book, "My Teacher is My Friend". The students even helped to create the classroom rules. Our 12 new friends are truly the "apple of room 61's eyes!"

Room 5's End of Summer Camping Trip

Room 5 ended their summer with a camping trip! They had so much fun camping in the classroom and enjoyed the opportunity to sleep in a sleeping bag next to their "campfire" and lantern. They also "roasted" marshmallows over the campfire to make delicious Smores which everyone loved! Thanks to Teacher Rosemary Ross for a fantastic end of summer treat!

Room 13 Meets Mat Man

The children in Room 13 met a new friend! His name is Mat Man. Teacher Mary Beth O'Donnell and the students listened to a funny song about Mat Man and drew a picture of him along with the song. As you can see, we have great artists in Room 13!
