BIO

At only 20 Years Old, Jeff Krick, Jr. is one of the most successful and endearing "Elvis Tribute Artists" in the country. In 2016, at only 19, Jeff placed as high as #6 in the entire world at the prestigious "Ultimate Elvis Tribute Contest" and in the Top 10 at the "Images of the King Contest" in Elvis' hometown of Memphis. He is a 2-Time Fan-Favorite Award Winner and 3-Time Top 10 Finalist at the Ocean City MD Elvis Festival. Jeff comes from a very musical family and as a child, while other kids were listening to the sounds of Eminem and Justin Bieber, the sounds of Elvis and other awe-inspiring artists like Conway Twitty and George Strait flooded his play lists. Hailing from Reading PA, Jeff began singing before he was able to talk and has been performing professionally since age 16. In his short but busy career, he has headlined Cruise Ships, numerous Elvis and music festivals, and has performed as far West as Hawaii and Las Vegas. Jeff not only has THE LOOK but also THE SOUND in that he is one of very few Elvis Tribute Artists that – ACTUALLY, REALLY, WHOLEHEARTEDLY - sound like THE KING himself, bringing chills, goose bumps, and the world's most-authentic Elvis Tribute Act to life at such a young age.

Close your eyes and you would swear... THE KING IS SINGING RIGHT TO YOU!
