NEWSLETTER

SEPTEMBER, 2017

Welcome to our "New Community Newsletter".

We have decided to make a few changes to our Newsletter to give you a more quick and easy read. In the past year, we have utilized face book and our website more to let our community know about our events and community news which has been very successful.

Our Community Board would like to thank a wonderful volunteer Jamie Keeley for building our new website. She spent many hours of her valuable time for our community. Thank you very much Jamie. The website is awesome.

Our Motto is:

If it is not fun, we do not do it!

Community News

Summer Community Projects

The ramp at the community hall will be getting a handrail by mid September and that should be the completion of the hall project. We want to thank all the renters and people utilizing our facilities for your understanding and patience while these renovations were being completed. Also grass has been seeded in our expansion area of our rink so this winter families can enjoy skating on a larger surface.

You may have been watching our little gardens grow beside the tennis courts and wondering what this is all about. It is the second year of great gardening, so here is what Is and Is Not.

Is - Garden Plots are rented by residents of BD to grow their own vegetables. It is a place to meet with your neighbors, share ideas and get to know each other.

It Is Not produce to be shared by community.

It Is Not produce grown for use of other gardeners (unless you want to share).
