Revolutionary Sons elect several to state offices

Ridgeland, Miss. March 15, 2021. Joined by officials from Alabama, Louisiana, and Tennessee societies, the Mississippi Society Sons of the American Revolution held their annual meeting at Embassy Suites in Ridgeland. In anticipation of the event, Governor Tate Reeves declared March 13 as "Sons of the American Revolution Day" in the state. Ridgeland Mayor Gene Magee also welcomed the group with a proclamation of support. The luncheon was broadcast via live streaming video on Facebook, YouTube and the society's website to an additional forty attendees.

In addition to the normal reports given by officers and committee chairs at the socially-distanced meeting, the society elected Ben Block Jones II of Jackson as President of the 400-plus member organization for 2021-2022. Jones was also awarded the State Distinguished Service medal for his activities in support of the society during 2020.

Other locals elected as officers were Rev. Glenn Shows as Chaplain and Hon. Mark Henry as Chancellor, both of Madison. Retiring State President Dr. Bryant Ridgeway Boswell of Jackson was elected State Color Guard Commander and nominated as Alternate Trustee to the National Society. National SAR Vice-President General of the Southern District Michael Schenk of Madison conducted the installation. Also representing the Central Mississippi Chapter were Benjamin Eubanks of Clinton, Hon. T. Harris Collier III of Jackson, and Ron Humphrey II and Calvin Batson of Brandon. Humphrey was awarded the Military Service Medal and Eubanks received a Distinguished Service certificate.

The Sons of the American Revolution is a national patriotic, historical and educational society whose members are direct descendants of the patriots who earned our independence.
