

Finkel, Norman

Norman F. Finkel, 67, of Port Hope passed away unexpectedly Thursday, Oct. 12, 2000, at his home following an apparent heart attack. He was born on June 24, 1933, in Port Hope, son of the late Floyd and Lydia (Schmaltz) Finkel. He and Virginia Koglin were married on Nov. 21, 1953, in St. John Lutheran Church in Port Hope. Norman was a lifelong Huron Township farmer and loved the out-of-doors as he enjoyed hunting, and he especially enjoyed his grandchildren. Norman was a member of St. John Lutheran Church in Port Hope and served on various boards of the church. He was a choir member and was currently president of the Aid Association to Lutherans. He was a member of the Huron Township Zoning Board and a former member of the Harbor Beach Area Community Easter Choir. Surviving are his wife, Virginia Finkel of Port Hope; his children, Larry Finkel of Port Hope, Kathy Leneway and her husband, Ken, of Marysville, and Raymond Finkel and his wife, Jane, of Fort Gratiot; grandchildren Travis and Kacie Leneway of Marysville and Joseph and Amy Finkel of Fort Gratiot; two sisters, Dorothy Anderson of Detroit and Esther Lobur and her husband, Terry, of Seven Hills, Ohio; a brother, Don Finkel and his wife, Linda, of Macomb; and by several nieces and nephews. Funeral services will take place at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 15, 2000, in St. John Lutheran Church, Port Hope, with the Rev. Henry Malone and the Rev. Albert Bahr officiating. Burial will be in the Port Hope Cemetery. A scripture service will be conducted at 8 p.m. Saturday in the Ramsey Funeral Home in Harbor Beach. Visitation will be 7 to 9 p.m. this evening and from 1 to 9 p.m. Saturday at the funeral home, and from 1:30 until the time of services Sunday at the church. Memorials may be given to St. John Lutheran Church.
