

CVI Characteristics – Observation Notes

VISUAL REFLEXIVE RESPONSES (blink to touch, blink to threat)
LIGHT (Attraction to Light, Light Gazing, Non-Purposeful Gaze)
COLOR: (Favorite/highly preferred colors, multiple colors on a visual target, need for bright/saturated colors to anchor visual attention)
MOVEMENT: - movement at near - movement at far - movement for complex or novel
LATENCY: (specific length of time, latency with novel or complex targets or environments, when tired, stressed, overstimulated)
VISUAL NOVELTY: (only able to view familiar objects, novel objects that share [specific] characteristics with familiar, need for warm-up time, difficulty with novel environments)
COMPLEXITY: - array - target - sensory environment - faces
VISUAL FIELDS: - left - right - center - upper - lower
DISTANCE VIEWING: - near: up to 18" - 2 to 3 feet - 4-6, 6-8, 10, 10-20'
VISUAL MOTOR: Look-look away-reach Look-reach-look away Touch-look Specific examples	