

Staff Ethics

The Board expects members of its staff to be familiar with the code of ethics that applies to their profession and to adhere to it in the relationship with students, parents, co-workers, and officials.