Auction Items Needed

Are you looking for an opportunity to thin your collections, raise some funds for the club, and perhaps find a new item that you need or just can't live without?

You can do all three by donating any excess glass, pottery, linens and other useful home items for the fall Silent Auction to take place on Wed., Nov. 13.

Items for the auction will be accepted at the August meeting (Aug. 14), the September meeting (Sept. 11), and the October meeting (Oct. 9). Please label each item with the manufacturer name and pattern if known. If you are unable to bring the items, contact Lee Vinson (504-250-1997) or Bonnie Theard (504-913-2361) and we will arrange pick-up.

More Highlights from Summer Social

Desiree Miller arranged some fun games to play.
Al Melillo won this lovely EAPG Carousel Horse Dish.

Darrell Redler does his best guess on Jar of Mints but Danielle Joachim got the correct guess and won the Boyd Art Glass Nile Green Carousel Horse.

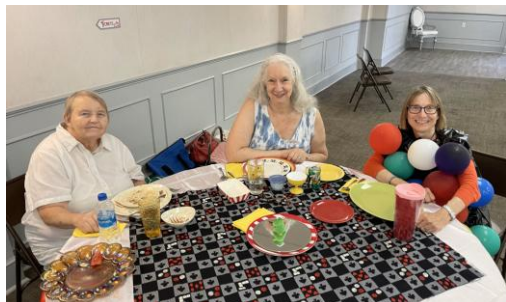

Lee Vinson was a nice "moving target".
Thanks for dressing up for the occasion. Love the desserts!

History Highlights 1996

In 1996 the club had committees for Hospitality, Programs, Library, Show & Tell, Sunshine, Methodist Home (charity), Refreshments, Historian, Photographer, Spring Show & Sale plus that event's raffle and door prizes, Summer Social, Collector's Fest, and Christmas Social.

Charlotte Baham was the Sunshine lady and the scrapbook included the poems she chose for each month with appropriate colorful graphics.

Among the programs that year were: Block Optic (green), Adam (pink), Moderntone (pastels), and Capri (blue). Show & Tell focused on teapots and teacups, candy dishes, single-handle servers, cake plates, flower vases, sherbets and liners, lamps, and butter dishes.

The club's annual Spring Show & Sale featured a dish raffle of four, five-piece settings of Cambridge Glass Co.'s Cascade 4000 Line plus seven serving pieces—quite a value.
