Welcome to Annunciation

This morning we welcome Simon Babbs as our guest preacher. Please join us during the Adult Forum for a conversation with the Babbs' about the Diocese of Toliara and the work in Madagascar.

Before Worship

We ask that conversations and greetings before the worship service happen in the Narthex. We try to keep the Nave as a space for quiet prayer and contemplation as we enter into worship.

What's Happening

The Parish News is your guide to everything happening in our parish. The bulletin contains everything you need to fully participate in the service. Some of the music we will sing can be found in either the Red or Blue hymnal in your pew.

Communion

All persons, including children, are welcome to receive Communion.

Hospitality

After the service, please enjoy good food, coffee, and conversation in the Parish Hall.

Let's Get Connected!

We want to get to know you better and tell you more about our community. Please fill in a Newcomer Card, available at the Communications Center near the main entrance.

Children

We welcome children to participate fully, and we do not expect them to be perfectly quiet. If your child needs a break, feel free to bring them to the Narthex (lobby) or make use of our Nursery: take a left as you exit the worship space, down the hall.

The main restrooms are off the Parish Hall, to your right as you exit the worship space. A gender-neutral restroom is located to your left as you exit the worship space, down the hall.

The First Lesson

Amos 6:1a,4-7

Reader: A reading from the prophet Amos, who pronounces woe upon the proud and complacent leaders of Judah and Israel.

Alas for those who are at ease in Zion,
and for those who feel secure on Mount Samaria.
Alas for those who lie on beds of ivory,
and lounge on their couches,
and eat lambs from the flock,
and calves from the stall;
who sing idle songs to the sound of the harp,
and like David improvise on instruments of music;
who drink wine from bowls,

and anoint themselves with the finest oils,
but are not grieved over the ruin of Joseph!
Therefore they shall now be the first to go into exile,
and the revelry of the loungers shall pass away.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Psalm 146

Reader: Let us say the psalm responsively by half verse.

1 Hallelujah! Praise the Lord, O my soul! *

I will praise the Lord as long as I live; I will sing praises to my God while I have my being.

2 Put not your trust in rulers,
nor in any child of earth, *
for there is no help in them.

3 When they breathe their last,
they return to earth, *
and in that day their thoughts perish.

4 Happy are they who have the God of Jacob for their help! *
whose hope is in the Lord their God;

5 Who made heaven and earth, the seas, and all that is in them; *
who keeps his promise for ever;

6 Who gives justice to those who are oppressed, *
and food to those who hunger.

7 The Lord sets the prisoners free; the Lord opens the eyes of the blind; *
the Lord lifts up those who are bowed down;

8 The Lord loves the righteous;
the Lord cares for the stranger; *
he sustains the orphan and widow, but frustrates the way of the wicked.

9 The Lord shall reign for ever,
* your God, O Zion, throughout all generations.
Hallelujah!

The Second Lesson

1 Timothy 6:6-19

Reader: A reading from the first letter to Timothy. In this letter, the author exhorts Timothy to be strong with virtues in the race of faith, waiting for the appearance of the Lord Jesus. He warns against the love of money and instructs the rich to be generous and to store up the treasure of true life.

There is great gain in godliness combined with contentment; for we brought nothing into the world, so that we can take nothing out of it; but if we have food and clothing, we will be content with these. But those who want to be rich fall into temptation and are trapped by many senseless and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction. For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil, and in their eagerness to be rich some have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many pains.

But as for you, man of God, shun all this; pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance, gentleness. Fight the good fight of the faith; take hold of the eternal life, to which you were called and for which you made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses. In the presence of God, who gives life to all things, and of Christ Jesus, who in his testimony before Pontius Pilate made the good confession, I charge you to keep the commandment without spot or blame until the manifestation of our Lord Jesus Christ, which he will bring about at the right time-- he who is the blessed and only Sovereign, the King of kings and Lord of lords. It is he alone who has immortality and dwells in unapproachable light, whom no one has ever seen or can see; to him be honor and eternal dominion. Amen.

As for those who in the present age are rich, command them not to be haughty, or to set their hopes on the uncertainty of riches, but rather on God who richly provides us with everything for our enjoyment. They are to do good, to be rich in good works, generous, and ready to share, thus storing up for themselves the treasure of a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of the life that really is life.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

The Gospel

Luke 16:19-31

Deacon: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon: Jesus said, "There was a rich man who was dressed in purple and fine linen and who feasted sumptuously every day. And at his gate lay a poor man named Lazarus, covered with sores, who longed to satisfy his hunger with what fell from the rich man's table; even the dogs would come and lick his sores. The poor man died and was carried away by the angels to be with Abraham. The rich man also died and was buried. In Hades, where he was being tormented, he looked up and saw Abraham far away with Lazarus by his side. He called out, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue; for I am in agony in these flames.' But Abraham said, 'Child, remember that during your lifetime you received your good things, and Lazarus in like manner evil things; but now he is comforted here, and you are in agony. Besides all this, between you and us a great chasm has been fixed, so that those who might want to pass from here to you cannot do so, and no one can cross from there to us.' He said, 'Then, father, I beg you to send him to my father's house-- for I have five brothers-- that he may warn them, so that they will not also come into this place of torment.' Abraham replied, 'They have Moses and the prophets; they should listen to them.' He said, 'No, father Abraham; but if someone goes to them from the dead, they will repent.' He said to him, 'If they do not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be convinced even if someone rises from the dead.'"

Deacon: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Children's Chapel

Please join in singing "This little light of mine" as the children process. All children are invited to follow the small cross to take part in a liturgy of their own. They will return at the Peace.

The Sermon

The Creed

*We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.*

*We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit*

*he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.*

*On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.*

*We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son who is worshiped and glorified.
Who has spoken through the Prophets.*

*We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism
for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come.*

Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Book of Common Prayer: Prayer A

Presider: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Presider: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Presider: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. For by water and the Holy Spirit you have made us a new people in Jesus

Christ our Lord, to show forth your glory in all the world. Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing:

S-129

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant: And now as our savior Christ has taught us, we say:

Our Father in heaven,

hallowed be your Name,

your kingdom come,

your will be done,

on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins

as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial,

and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power,

and the glory are yours,

Celebrant and People:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and forever.

People: AMEN!

now and for ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

People: We are one body because we share one bread and one cup. Alleluia.

Wednesday Book Study

September 14 was our first day back to book study after a short summer break. We had an almost record-breaking 10 people. We met in the Forum room and almost didn't fit!!! People just kept coming and coming. It was wonderful!!

We are studying Mother Teresa: No Greater Love. When we were checking out Mother Teresa books, I came across Mother Teresa of Calcutta: A Personal Portrait. It contains 50 stories of Fr. Leo Maasburg's relationship with Mother Teresa. They are stories that tell about the very human woman as opposed to her writings. I decided to read one of the stories each week after we completed our discussion on the assigned readings. It seemed a good way to really know her. Everyone thought it was a good idea and now can't wait to get to "the story".

One of the sections assigned was a biographical sketch of her life. We spent quite a lot of time in this section and, interestingly enough, we ended up comparing and contrasting her life and work with Bishop Todd and Patsy McGregor's lives. What a surprising, unintentional blessing that was!!!! When I told Patsy, she said she was truly humbled by our comparisons.

On the second week, we spent the entire time in the chapter entitled "On Prayer" so next week we will reread "On Love" (pages 19-36) and "On Giving" (pages 39-48).

We would love to have you join us. We meet each Wednesday morning at 10 AM in the Forum room. We break between 11:30 and 11:45. Be sure to bring your prayer requests too since we make note of them as well.

Have you noticed the framed poster on the Parish Hall wall? It is Rembrandt's Return of the Prodigal Son. We had read and discussed Henri Nouwen's book The Return of the Prodigal Son: A Story of Homecoming several years ago and got the poster so we could see all the elements of the painting more clearly. We are now sharing that poster and the book as well with you. Please, if you take the book, return it in a timely manner.

If you have questions about the book study, please see either Deb Gallinger or Miriam Berry.

12@12 Service

The 12@12 service continues on Tuesdays in the Chapel. We will begin our new study with the book People of the Second Chance by Mike Foster (also published under the title You Rise Glorious). The book is not required to join the conversation.

Parish Life Updates

So, how was the ice cream???? It looked like there were lots of people hanging around the ice cream table which was terrific. We hope you had a really tasty sundae.

Thank you to Vienna Robison, Mia Fabry-Klimzak, Payton Schobert, Samantha Robison, Phil Fabry, Michael Klimzak and Tara Schobert for all their work on Sundae Sunday. We appreciate all your work and hope you will do it again next year.

Thank you to the members of the Finance committee who hosted coffee hour on September 18. It was very yummy.

Thank you to Deb Gallinger for hosting this week's coffee hour. Again, yummy treats.

We are settling down into a more normal time for a few weeks so coffee hours will be great but quieter. Most of October through December is open at this point except for a few people who have signed up. We could certainly use your help so please click on the link at the bottom of this article to go to Sign Up Genius and add your name. If you would prefer, sign up on the paper copy on the sign up board in the parish hall and I will transfer your name over to Sign Up Genius.

If you have any questions or need help signing up, please contact Andrea Lindblad or Miriam Berry.

Printer Cartridges

Remember about a month ago, I reported that I had sent 130 empty printer cartridges to the recycling place in California? Well, I just received the check from the recycler and it was for $51.25. Now, this might not be a huge amount of money but it does add to the Outreach fund and, at the same time, is keeping all that plastic out of the landfills. Thank you all for bringing in the cartridges. I have several neighbors who like the idea of recycling and getting money for them so they save all their cartridges for me. You might want to talk it up with your neighbors as well. Every little bit helps.

For our new parishioners, there is a box labeled with a cartridge recycling sign on it. It is on the table just to the left of the parish hall entrance. Just put the empty cartridges in there and I will take them when there is a bunch.

If you have any questions about this, please see Miriam Berry.
