Are you ready for a set of conflicting ideas? There were two guys on street corners one with a sign “THE END IS NEAR” the other with a sign “TODAY IS THE FIRST DAY OF THE REST OF YOUR LIFE” It is a matter of information and perception. The one could be threatening if there is no preparation for that which is to come. Have you considered your latter end?

There is an idiom “All good things must come to an end.” On earth here that is true to some extent. Family gatherings, weekends for some, I would say Thanksgiving dinner but with the nibbling after dinner you sure prolonged the end even unto the next day. Yes, some good things come to an end; but thank God he brings other “good things” into our life.

The first day – it is nice to have a new beginning. We have new mercies every morning, new opportunities each day to better ourselves and the world we live in. We have new trials to overcome and give the Lord the glory; providing we get the victory. Our life doesn’t have to be same old same old. (“Lord grant me a fresh look at life today, Lord direct me to someone today to talk with about God. Lord help me pray for the needs of others.”) I bet if we incorporated our life with the things of God we would walk in “newness of life.”

Now let’s move on to more concentrated scripture.

1. Synopsis of Proverbs 26 (28 verses)

This chapter describes the fool, the slothful, the meddler, the talebearer, the deceiver, the liar. WHOA! Such negative truths.

- And we need to learn from them.

Here we’ll move on to something of more praise.

- And again need to learn from them.

2. Synopsis of Psalms 131 – 135

Psalms 131 (3 Verses) humility, hope in the Lord

Psalms 132 (198 verses) I want to find a place for God and worship; He made great promises for me.

Psalms 133 (3 verses) Blessed fellowship with the brethren in unity. Life for evermore.

Psalms 134 (3 verses) Bless the LORD, Bless the LORD – the LORD bless thee our of Zion.

Psalms 135 (21 verses) Praise the LORD sing praises unto his name, for it is pleasant. The LORD is great and is above all gods. He made the water cycle. He sent wonders upon Egypt and smote great nations. The idols are vanity. Bless the LORD. Praise the LORD.

- A synopsis might give you a lead on a thing or two but shouldn’t replace the full reading of the matter.
