

SHARE'S 60th DENIM & DIAMONDS BOOMTOWN GALA

SOME 500 guests and celebrities celebrated at Beverly Hilton International Ballroom, raising thousands of dollars for "at risk" youth, developmentally disabled, abused, neglected children, and medical research for all forms of developmental disabilities. The crowd of VIPs went crazy for the fabulous Grammy Award winning R & B band, The Temptations who performed a medley of favorites. Comedian John Byner was a perfect emcee for a delightful evening featuring the amazing dancing SHARE LADIES. Donelle Dadigan, President and Founder of the Hollywood Museum received the 2013 "Shining Spirit Award" and was introduced by L. A City Councilmember Tom LaBonge. An unbeatable live auction was led by Wendy Hammers and SHARE President Debra Cirilov Couch gave Caryn Mintz the "Member of the Year" award. Charlene Painter served as director/choreographer and Gary Smith was executive producer. The grand finale featured all the SHARE members performing a special 60th Anniversary dance montage, "I Know We've Come So Far". SHARE is a non-profit philanthropic organization of women who are passionately committed to raising funds. Founded in 1953, SHARE, INC., has raised almost $50 million to date. ● www.share4children.org

Photos: Rick Canter

Jim Urie, Nanette Pattee Francini, Robert Davi

Joanna Carson, Ryan O'Neal, Corinna Fields Tsopel

Actress Tia Barr & Yakov Smirnoff

Lena Jolton, Susan Blakely, Suzan Hughes, September Sarno

Joan Kardashian, Neile Adams, Nigel Lythgoe, Bonnie Lythgoe, Wendy Hammers

Jane Jelenko, CNN's Dr. Wendy Walsh, Dolores Nemiro, Maxine Smith