

Armstrong's WoodHaven Adds Classic Touch to Mid-Century Modern Kitchen on TBS' Movie & A Makeover

Armstrong's WoodHaven laminate ceiling planks took center stage on a recent episode of TBS' Movie & a Makeover. The mid-century modern kitchen makeover was revealed during the network's showing of the movie Sister Act on Saturday, May 23, 2009. Armstrong provided WoodHaven planks in Classic

White to enhance the architectural interest of a kitchen space in desperate need of updating. Movie & a Makeover design experts Tonya M. Williams and Brian Patrick Flynn chose mid-century modern elements for the lighting, furniture and wall covering, but wanted to mix in classic architectural details as well, specifically on the fifth wall. Williams and Flynn requested WoodHaven for this particular ceiling treatment because they felt that the product's clean lines juxtaposed well with just about any style. Their choice of a Classic White finish was a matter of both aesthetics and function since the soft color of the planks helped reflect light around what once was a dark space.
