

University of Georgia Vet Teaching Hospital

2200 College Station Road Athens, Georgia

706-542-4459 706-357-0103

Sonya Lane slane@uga.edu

Registered Veterinary Technicians- Specialty Services, Anesthesia, ECC, Large Animal FT, Night shifts, weekends

Assist the senior veterinary and veterinary technician students in a variety of surgical and diagnostic procedures for both large and small animals.

-Typical duties include the calculation of drug dosages, the proper handling of controlled substances, and placement of a variety of patient catheters.

-Must maintain animal health records, conduct physical exams, collect and submit blood samples, administer medications, and post service charges for each patient.

-Some emergency duty is a requirement for this position.

Associates or Bachelor's degree in veterinary technology required and/or have met requirement for licensure in GA State.

Active license with the GA State Board of VET Medicine as a Veterinary Animal Technician or currently licensed in another State as credentialed veterinary technician and met all requirements to become licensed in GA within 6 months of employment

Licensure Required

To view job listings, visit www.ugajobsearch.com then select staff positions and look for RVT I and RVTII openings