YIZKOR – REMEMBER

By Marcia Hain

There is a difference between ‘Never forgetting’
And ‘Remembering.’
‘Never forgetting’ implies carrying around
Something that is heavy, burdensome
And ponderous—

‘Remembering’ is positive and comforting.
To remember is to be reassured,
To remember is to be surrounded by warmth,
To remember is to claim the past,
To remember is to structure the future,
To remember is to forge a link,
To remember is to transmit a legacy,
To remember is to acknowledge that we belong!

To be human is to enrich life’s experiences with the memories we have carefully nurtured.

To be Jewish is to elevate our remembrance into a ritual that sustains and nurtures us, as individuals,
as community, and as a spiritual entity.

No one is ever lost as long as there is someone who remembers...

PRELUDE

O Lord, in our great need for light, we look to You. The quick flight of our days impels us to look back with regret or to look ahead with misgiving. There are times when we are baffled by disorder, and times when we come to doubt life's value and meaning. When suffering and death strike at those we love, our pain and anger embitter us. Our faith fails us and we find it hard to trust in You.

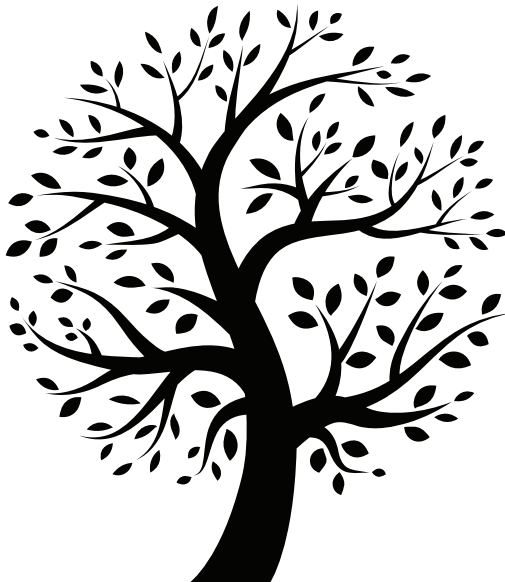

Eternal Spirit, make Your Presence felt among us. Help us to find the courage to affirm our faith in You and to do Your will, even when the shadows fall upon us. When our own weakness and the storms of life hide You from our sight, teach us that You are near to each one of us at all times, and especially when we strive to live truer, gentler, nobler lives. Give us trust, Lord, and give us peace. Give us light, and may our hearts find their rest in You.

IN MEMORIAM

At this hallowed hour,
we turn our thoughts
to our beloved departed.

May God grant them peace
and bliss in Life Eternal,
and may their memories
be a blessing to us all.

By love they are remembered
and in memory do they live

MEMORIAL SERVICE

O Lord, what is man that Thou shouldst notice him?
What is mortal man that Thou shouldst consider him?

Man is like a breath. His days are like a passing shadow.
He flourishes and grows in the morning.
He fades and withers in the evening.

O teach us how to number our days,
that we may attain a heart of wisdom.
Mark the innocent, look upon the upright.
For there is a future for the man of peace.

In this solemn hour consecrated to our beloved departed, we ponder over the flight of time, the frailty and uncertainty of human life. We ask ourselves: What are we? What is our life? To what purpose is our wisdom and knowledge? Where is our strength, our power, our fame? Alas, man seems born to trouble, and his years are few and full of travail.

But our great teachers have taught us to penetrate beneath appearances and see the higher worth, the deeper meaning, and the abiding glory of human life.

PSALM 23
A PSALM OF DAVID

The Lord is my shepherd;

I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul;

He guideth me in straight paths for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me;

Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;

Thou hast anointed my head with oil;

my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life,

And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

MEDITATION

Eternal G-d, source of consolation and healing, your children's hearts are turned to You, in this hour of grief and remembrance.

Grant strength, O Lord, to all who mourn; sustain them in their sorrow. Help them to face the future with confidence and hope, even as they continue to honor the souls of their loved ones.

As we recall those taken from our midst, we offer our thanks — for the years which we shared, for the companionship which we enjoyed, for the love which we knew, and for the memories which we now treasure.

May we create living memorials to our departed through acts of kindness, of compassion, and of loyalty.

May all who mourn today find comfort in Your unfailing love, as they now rise to recite the hallowed words of the Kaddish.

MOURNER'S KADDISH

Magnified and Sanctified be the great name of God, in the world created according to the Divine will.

May God's sovereignty soon be established, In our lifetime and that of the entire House of Israel and let us say:

Amen.

May God's great name be praised to all eternity.

Hallowed and honored, extolled and exalted, adored and acclaimed be the name of the blessed Holy One, whose glory is above all the praises, hymns, and songs of adoration which human beings can utter:

And let us say:

Amen.

May God grant abundant peace and life to us and to all Israel.

And let us say:

Amen

May God, who ordains harmony in the universe, grant peace to us and to all Israel.

And let us say:

Amen.

PRAYER FOR THE CONGREGATION

May He who blessed our ancestors, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, Sarah, Rebecca, Rachel, and Leah, bless the people of this congregation, and of all other congregations: them, their sons, their daughters, and all their dear ones. May His blessing also be vouchsafed unto those who dedicate and maintain synagogues, unto those who enter therein to worship, and unto those who pray for the wayfarer; and are charitable to the poor. May He also bless those who faithfully devote themselves to the needs of the community and to the rebuilding of Eretz Yisrael. May the Holy One, blessed be He, remove from them all sickness, preserve them in health, forgive their sins, prosper the work of their hands, and bestow blessings upon them and upon all Israel, their brethren, and let us say, Amen.

PRAYER FOR THE STATE OF ISRAEL

○ Heavenly Father, our Protector and Redeemer; bless,
we pray Thee, the State of Israel.

Shield her with Thy loving care: guide her leaders with the light of Thy truth and direct them with Thy good counsel.

Strengthen the hands of those who build and defend the Holy Land.
Grant peace and tranquility to the Land, joy and serenity to all its inhabitants.

Remember our brethren of the whole House of Israel, and gather the homeless of our people from the lands of their dispersion.
Enable them to return to dignity to Zion, Thy city, and Jerusalem, the dwelling place of Thy glory. Thus shall be fulfilled the promise set forth in Thy Torah:

“Though your dispersed be in the ends of the earth, from there will
the Lord God gather them and bring them into the land which their fathers inherited, and they shall possess it.”

Unite our hearts to love and revere Thy name and to observe the teachings of Thy Torah.

Reveal the glory of Thy majesty to all the inhabitants of the earth
so that all the living shall proclaim that Thou art the God of Israel and the Sovereign of all mankind.

Amen.

PRAYER FOR OUR COUNTRY

Almighty G-d, eternal Ruler of the universe, Thou art revealed in the harmony and the beauty of nature.

Thou art also manifest in the lives of good men and in the righteousness of nations. Keep our nation forever righteous and just. Bless our country and all mankind with the light of Thy presence. May all the peoples that make up this great Commonwealth consecrate their efforts, under Thy guidance, to the cause of liberty, equality, and justice. May we remain united in purpose, respecting each other's rights and striving together with resolute hearts and willing hands for the welfare of all the inhabitants of our land.

O G-d, Father of all men, do Thou bind us ever more closely into a brotherhood of peoples, that we may labor unceasingly against the festering vices of malice and greed, fear and ignorance, hypocrisy and corruption, avarice and violence. May this country forever be the land of the free, where all may dwell in security and peace.

Prosper our country, O Lord, in all its worthy endeavors, so that future generations may praise Thee and call us Blessed for the spirit of fellowship implanted in the hearts of all Thy children. Vouchsafe Thy blessings unto the President of the United States, the Governor of this State, and all who exercise just and rightful authority. Enlarge their vision so that they may guide us in wisdom and thus make our land a mighty force for righteousness among the nations of the world.

Fashion Thou our hearts anew and bend our will to Thy purpose so that the call to war and the clash of arms will not resound in our land. Grant that our country lead the way in the pursuit of peace and the fulfillment of the vision of Thy prophet: "Men shall do no evil and work no destruction on all G-d's holy mountain for the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea."

Amen.
