October 18 & 19, 2025
29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

There is a gold Box by Mary at the front of the church. Please add the names of your departed loved ones and we will remember them during the month of November.

All Souls Day emphasizes the Catholic teaching about the "communion of saints" – the spiritual connection between all faithful people, whether living or deceased.

This concept provides comfort to those grieving losses and reinforces the belief that death doesn't end relationships but transforms them. The day offers hope that prayers and good works can benefit departed loved ones.

Today is Mission Sunday

Imagine a world where billions of people have never heard the name of Jesus. Imagine villages where people walk miles to attend Mass because there's no church nearby. Imagine communities where faith is alive but fragile, challenged by poverty or isolation. Imagine churches packed every Sunday, even when those taking part know they are targets of terrorists because of their faith. This is why World Mission Sunday makes a difference. Celebrated every year on the second-to-last Sunday of October, World Mission Sunday is the day when Catholics around the world unite to support the missionary work of the Church.

BLUE MASS

IN HONOR OF PUBLIC SAFETY PERSONNEL

A Blue Mass will be celebrated in St George on Tuesday October 28th at Noon.

A Blue mass is offered for those employed in the field of public safety, which includes police officers, firefighters, corrections officers and paramedics. In the United States, the Blue Mass tradition began in September 1934, when Father Thomas Dade of the Archdiocese of Baltimore formed the Catholic Police and Fireman's Society. That year, the first Blue Mass was celebrated for police officers and firefighters. The name comes from the traditional uniform color associated with law enforcement.

"I feel that our souls are moved to the ardor of piety by the sacred words more piously and powerfully when these words are sung than when they are not sung, and that all the affections of our soul in their variety have modes of their own in song and chant by which they are stirred up by an indescribable and secret sympathy." -Saint Augustine

Have you noticed the words that our Choir sings at the very start of communion? Please join with them:

*"Lord prepare me to be a sanctuary pure and holy tried and true
with Thanksgiving
I'll be a living sanctuary for you"*

Everyone is encouraged to check out our website for kids activities and extra credit opportunities for our students.
