

Indianapolis High-Asset Divorce Attorney

At Ruppert & Schaefer, P.C., we handle divorces aggressively, but also with compassion and dedication to our clients' needs. Our lawyers will listen to your concerns and strive to successfully achieve your goals. From complex asset division and business valuations to custody and support matters, we have the proven skills to assist you.

Call us at 317.580.9295 or contact our Indiana law firm online to arrange for a consultation with a lawyer regarding your high-asset divorce. We will explain your rights and begin working on your case immediately.

Lawyers Assisting Clients With Complex Asset Division Throughout Indiana

At Ruppert & Schaefer, P.C., our team has more than 70 years of combined experience in all aspects of family law. Our lawyers have handled countless divorces and know how to plan ahead to avoid major obstacles. We also have an extensive understanding of how to properly value and divide all types of assets, including:

- Corporations
- Partnerships and other small businesses
- Investments and stock portfolios
- Vacation homes
- Cars, boats and other vehicles
- All real property

By working with experts in the field, we are able to provide the court with an accurate valuation of your property and protect your interest in them throughout your case.

Uncovering Hidden Assets

It is important that all property is put in front of the court during your complex divorce. If some assets are hidden, it could drastically affect the type and amount of property you are given in your divorce decree. In order to protect your rights, you can rely on us to keep you fully informed and up to date at every step in the process.

Contact a High-Asset Divorce Lawyer

For a consultation with a lawyer at Ruppert & Schaefer, P.C., regarding a business valuation or other complex property division issues, call 317.580.9295 or contact us online. Our firm represents clients throughout the Indianapolis and central Indiana area.