Feast of the Epiphany Year A

Matthew 2:1-12

“When Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of King Herod, behold, magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying, “Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage.” When King Herod heard this, he was greatly troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. Assembling all the chief priests and the scribes of the people, He inquired of them where the Christ was to be born. They said to him, “In Bethlehem of Judea, for thus it has been written through the prophet: And you, Bethlehem, land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; since from you shall come a ruler, who is to shepherd my people Israel.” Then Herod called the magi secretly and ascertained from them the time of the star’s appearance. He sent them to Bethlehem and said, “Go and search diligently for the child. When you have found him, bring me word, that I too may go and do him homage.” After their audience with the king they set out. And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was. They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed for their country by another way.”

‘Gifts of the Magi’

By Timothy Dudley-Smith

Take, O Child,
The gift that I bring,
Rich and rare as befits a King:
Gold that glints as the star looks down -
Gold to gleam in a great king’s crown.
When the kingdom comes, when the flags unfold,
Remember me, and my gift of gold.

Take, O Child,
The gift that I bring,
Rich and rare as befits a King:
I kneel as a king, to a King divine,
Receive my praise, and this gift of mine
Which is frankincense for the altar fire
To burn in worship to the World’s Desire.

Take, O Child,
The gift that I bring,
Rich and rare as befits a King:
Costliest myrrh from the East afar
For the tomb foretold by the travelling star.
When they bear you slow to your kingly grave
You shall lie at last with the gift I gave.

Pastor's Study Desk Notes

Dear St Anthony & St Pius Families,

Feast of the Epiphany

Matthew 2:1-12

Return of the Magi! No, it is not a sequel in the Star Wars movie series. It is the story of the wise men seeking to find the messianic king who was to be born under the new celestial sign they observed in the sky! What a marvel! Not simply the stellar sight in the sky, but the fertile faith of those seekers on the ground! They strive to find their God! And they do!

Often the picture of Jesus and the Holy Family, and their struggles, are highlighted during the Christmas season. Certainly, they had many obstacles to overcome, such as Caesar's governmental demands (the Census), Herod's meddling persecutions, the harsh travel terrain and climate, the inhospitality of others along the way and plenty of demands still waiting back home for them (customers of Joseph's carpentry work). But especially since the magi-travelers also cover great distances in their search for a newborn king, I wonder about their particular struggles too along the way. But like Mary & Joseph, they also have sincere faith that motivates them to keep going in their search for the living God, despite hardship or setbacks! I can imagine their journey beginning something like this: one of them notices a strange appearance in the sky and calls his confreres to view it also. He asks them their experienced opinion as to what was going on. Like scientists, they want to seek and explore the sight more closely, so they take to the road to follow, the sight to its source. My burning question for them is, "What did they set aside, reschedule and leave behind to venture out and learn what this 'something more' is, that is, 'out there'?" Were they young and looking to find what no one else yet had known? Were they old and seeking to confirm some finding they had wisely theorized about earlier in life, but now wished to validate by some public acknowledgement? Had they been rejected in their own scientific fields and now sought to make a break to begin a fresh career? Additionally, whatever motivated their journey beginning, now as they pursued this new direction, how many nagging questions, doubts or challenges did they face? What ridicule did they shrug off to remain at their quest, all the way, ultimately to Bethlehem in Palestine (West Bank) to meet and adore their new Lord! So often, the joy is in the journey! They kept seeking!

Back in 1895, American author Henry van Dyke, wrote the story, The Other Wise Man. In this version, there is a fourth Wise Man named, Artaban, who also follows behind them (he got a later start and hoped to catch up with the others). He brought three precious gifts – a sapphire, a ruby, and a pearl – to present to the new born Jesus, when he met Him.

While travelling to meet up with the other three Wise Men, Artaban comes across a man who is dying, and decides to stay with him and give him hospice care.. He uses his sapphire gift he planned to give to baby Jesus to pay for the man's medical needs. Despite this schedule delay, he hopes to catch up with the other wise men, Caspar, Melchior and Balthazar. However, when he reaches Bethlehem, he learns that the Wise Men had already come and gone, and that Mary, Joseph, and Jesus had also fled off to Egypt to escape King Herod's murderous decree to kill all the male babies. Disappointed, Artaban leaves Bethlehem, but on his way out, he sees soldiers preparing to carry out Herod's command. He runs across a desperate mom begging for help. Artaban, sacrifices his ruby to bribe a soldier into sparing her child. Still discouraged about missing the baby king Jesus, Artaban doesn't give up and return home. He continues his search still holding onto the pearl. Over the next 33 years, Artaban travels the hills of Judea and border areas, continuing his helping ministry, while he continues searching for his King. His journey seems to wind down as he thinks of just retiring to Jerusalem. Now elderly and moving much more slowly, he still holds onto his pearl, that last gift he reserves for the King. He learns that an innocent man, named Jesus, is set to be crucified, so he hurries to offer the pearl as a ransom. But again, along the way, he runs into a young girl about to be sold into slavery. His heart is moved at the sight of her, and he surrenders his last treasure, the pearl, to gain her release! As she approaches Artaban, to thank him, a violent earthquake shakes the city, and Artaban is fatally injured by a falling roof beam. As he lies dying in the street, he hears the voice of Jesus, telling him that he met his Savior King, through every act of love and mercy he performed for others in need. Jesus tells Artaban, that each act was indeed received by Him! In his final breaths, Artaban finds his life's peace, realizing that through his service of compassion, he had been discovering his King all along the Way. Anything done for the poor, is all done to God! Peace, Fr Brian
