

Eastport Little Free Library

The first LFL in Eastport is located at Wells Avenue and Roosevelt Court, has its own Facebook page “Eastport Little Free Library”, and is stewarded by Yarrow and her two book angels Melissa Curry and Jenn Hines. While on vacation, Yarrow happened upon a Little Free Library and knew immediately that she wanted one for her yard in Eastport.

For Yarrow, whom the neighborhood children refer to as “the book lady,” the LFL was a way for her to connect with the community and get to know her neighbors. “I get to talk to all the neighbors who walk up and down my street and share books with them. It is wonderful.”

Yarrow’s LFL focuses mostly on children’s and young adult books. Yarrow and the book angels hold an elaborate Halloween event at their LFL. They provide healthy snacks and new and gently used children’s clothing. Children who would like a healthy snack or something from the give-away section must take a book with them as well. If anyone is interested in donating a healthy snack, the LFL is looking for individually packaged popcorn, breakfast bars and instant oatmeal. New and gently used children’s clothes are also welcome. Please coordinate donations through the Eastport Little Free Library Facebook Page

If you would like to donate a book to any of the LFLs in Eastport use the Little Free Library’s world map to find little libraries near you. Then, visit the library of your choice and leave some books inside. It’s that easy! Please be respectful, though, and don’t cram books in a library that’s already full. Speak with the homeowner or business owner where the library is installed if you’re not sure if it’s OK to leave a book.
