Gwen Banta

A consistent top-producer at the company's renowned Sunset Strip Brokerage, Gwen has received numerous awards for outstanding performance. She's a Sotheby's International Realty Global Advisor - China, and Creator of East West Real Estate Specialists, designed to assist global investors in their commercial and residential California acquisitions. Gwen counts many musical and film performers among her client roster, which has resulted in her becoming a canyon specialist in the city she so loves.

An award-winning actress and author, Gwen holds B.A. and M.S. degrees, as well as a Spanish Language Certificate from Monterey's renowned Defense Language Institute. Gwen has had three novels published by Waldorf Press and Creativia: The Fly Strip, Inside Sam Lerner, and With Wanton Disregard. Her children's book, The Monster Zoo, will be published in 2019. Gwen believes everyone is unique and special. "My goal is to provide the best service possible, which is what each of my valued clients deserves. For me, every new client is a forever client."

Tory Herald

Excellent communication and negotiation skills became the fundamental cornerstones to Tory Herald's highly-successful 20-year career as a respected Hollywood casting director. Today, in real estate, she enlists those same essential and vital qualities to ensure the goals of her buyers and sellers.

Tory has further broadened the expanse of her business by forging a connective network encompassing all aspects of real estate investment: residential, commercial, industrial, land, mixed-use, multi-unit, etc. Her Asian-based network, East-West Real Estate Property Specialists, offers real estate services beyond the acquisition or sale of a property.

Capitalizing on her bicultural background and experience, and supported in the worldwide marketplace by the presence of Sotheby's International Realty, Tory is able to provide unsurpassed service to her discerning clientele locally, regionally and globally.
