Exhibit Opportunities

Northwest Hills Methodist Church - June 2018 in the North Hills Gallery

Once again the Austin Shutterbug Club has been invited by Northwest Hills Methodist Church to exhibit in June 2018 in the North Hills Gallery.

The club leadership has discussed this opportunity and agrees that we should take their invitation. Our "annual" show for has been there for several years, and the church provides a lovely reception. Our club offers monetary awards for the four top images, however, relatively few sales have resulted. Because some members are not inclined to invest additional $$$ in printing and framing photos that are unlikely to sell, we encourage entry of images that have already been printed and framed for other shows or purposes. To enter a photo, we only ask that it not have been exhibited at North Hills Gallery previously. So be thinking about your possible entries.

Participating in group shows provides a valuable experience, especially for our newer members. We grow as photographers by learning how to select and prepare our photos for exhibiting. If you've not shown your work previously, you are encouraged to visit with Steve and/or Rose about it. You can have the presentation all done professionally (which can be expensive) but we can help you make your own prints, cut or purchase your mats, and use pre-assembled frames or assemble your own frames; or somewhere in between. There are many resources available locally and online.

We are also considering a smaller show at another location such as the Thai Fresh Restaurant in South Austin, where one of our members recently had a great show.
