 Course Rainy, Cold 50's
 Weather

10/3/2015

It was Partner's Final Day at Warrenbrook since the four finalist were the only DGA members to play. It was cold in the 50's with an occasional mist. Dan Price and John Rutigliano squared off against Ron Ceglia Jr and Rich Fitzgerald. It was a close match as the Partners were even at the turn. By the 14th hole Ceglia Jr and Fitz had a four point lead. Price and Rutigliano took 2 points on both 15 and 16 and after 17 the match was all square. On 18 it came down to a 4 foot par putt by Rutigliano for the 2 point win.

It was Dan and John's 3rd Partner's Championship and their first since 2006. More to come from Commissioner Frank Tarry.

As far as the round, it was pretty ugly. John wins with a net 76. Fitz wins the Net Birdie pot with 6. Ron wins the Greentee pot with 1, not Net Eagles, Birdies or Sandies. Fitz wins Net Par 3's and Ron wins Gross Par 3's.

 Weather RAIN

We had rain on and off...and at times, it was a cold rain. Scores were higher than expected for a Better Ball event. Dennis Grote and Bob Babetski shot Net 67 for a 2 shot win. Several funny stories but the best might have been Shane DeLeon's 1st tee shot when his club flew 40 yards down the fairway due to the wet conditions...and then Mike Rolph's drive barely got past Shane's club!

 Weather Sunny Cool

A great fall day to play although the group in front of us was sooo slow. Mike's guest had a sandy on #1 and holed out for a birdie double sandy on #3 - he and Jim P had 10 junk enough said.

 Weather Sun & Chilly - Upper 40's

A sunny and Chilly day at Quail Brook. Bruce Rapp happy to be home from Tampa shoots a Net 67 for a two stroke victory over Schuler. It was like a yard sale out there, the last group found Schuler's golf towel (Mansour has it), Griffith's Range Finder and a GPS unit on the course. A (good) Johnny was carded by Grote.

Weather Beautiful 80 Sunny

A beautiful day at the Cliffs - We all agreed these were the fastest greens we have ever played. A missed 2 foot put usually rolled 5 or 6 feet past the hole. The 130 slope at 6010 yards was more like 138 with the speed of the greens. On the 6th hole George was just short of the green and said "I can chip it on and 3 put for my double bogey." He did. George won each side by 1 shot over Mike Jeffries.

 Course Neshaic Valley (R/M) (69.1 /123)
 Weather Cool, cloudy, breezy low 50's

In what best can be described with a quote from a classic movie "What we got here is a failure to communicate" it was that type of day for the DGA. Mix in a no show, switching of groups, car partner questions, 2 different post round bars, and the actual golf was incidental. Greens were very slow and covered with dead worms making golf difficult as was seen by the scoring. Jim Petronchak overcomes a very slow start with a strong finish (finally figured out how hard to putt) to best Larry Thiry (who played the 1st hole without tying his shoes) by 3 strokes. Probably one of the few county DGA rounds where no one finished in the 60's.

We and WARM Christmas eve. Bob Babetski comes out of his slump and shows some real winter handicap golf, edging the recently hot Bruce Rapp. Babo birdies both 8 & 9 and takes most of the $. 6 of the 8 players in the red. Dave Perry almost takes out Jim Petronchak twice on the last hole, fairway shot and sand shot. He did say he was tired of playing with him. MERRY CHRISTMAS
