

Don't Go Looking for Love

Love circles like a fox
Creeping behind you
Catching you by surprise

Lover and loved
They all know their hearts
Lovers and loved
Playing games with their hearts
Sooner or later, you will learn.

Don't go looking for love
Don't go looking for love
Don't go looking for love
And it will find you

I'm in love with love
And everything about it
I'm an old romantic from way, way back

Lovers and loved
Seasoned veterans
Lovers and loved
Know all the rules
And soon, so will you

Don't go looking for love
Don't go looking for love
And it will find you
