

MATTHEW A. JOHNSON
Future Men of Action Award

- Senior, Jesuit College Preparatory School of Dallas; will attend Loyola University of Chicago majoring in Biology
- Jesuit Diversity Executive Board; Social Justice Immersion Program (International Children's AIDS Orphanage, Guatemala)
- Dallas Children's Advocacy Center; Minnie's Food Pantry

As a fun way for us to learn about you, please answer these questions.

Q. One thing on your bucket list?

A. Visit a safari in Africa.

Q. Last book you read?

A. Ghosts in the Schoolyard by Eve L. Ewing. It's a book about racism and school closings on the south side of Chicago

Q. Last movie you saw?

A. Toy Story 4

Q. Your favorite hobby?

A. Reading; it is a way for me to unwind and relax.

Q. What is one thing people would be surprised to know about you?

A. I am afraid of birds and snakes.

Q. Star Wars or Star Trek?

A. "May the Force be with you"

Q. Favorite meal?

A. Pizza or Any Seafood Dish.

Q. Rock & Roll, Jazz, Country, Classical, R&B, Disco, Other?

A. R&B and Rap

Q. First job?

A. My senior year, a Sales Associate at the Ralph Lauren Polo Outlet Store

Q. Favorite animal?

A. Tiger

Q. What is the favorite thing about your career?

A. My chosen career is to become a Pediatrics physician and make a difference in children's life. Along with the fact that I am excited to see what God has planned for me in the near future as well!

Q. What makes you laugh the most?

A. My Dad's Jokes

Q. What is your proudest accomplishment?

A. Receiving the Herion Scholarship Award during the Junior Convocation ceremony from my high school, Jesuit College Preparatory School of Dallas.