

This website is provided for general information and as such, should not be relied upon for any particular matter.

The guidelines, tools and templates available from this site will support your planning processes and strengthen your resilience. Using familiar software (Microsoft Word, Access, Excel and PowerPoint), we focus on quality processes within a risk management framework.

These approaches serve as best practice models. They should not be used as "templates for duplication" with global word changes. You should evaluate the significance of any requirements specific to your context - then tailor your approach accordingly.
