Christ Lutheran Church Newsletter

May, 2021

Aloha Kakou,

I got my second Pfizer shot about ten days ago as of this writing. No side effects, that I noticed. Took pictures and posted them online for all the world to see. Encouraging others to get jabbed.

Some of you asked me if I felt relieved afterward. While the entire process was a breeze, I am telling people, “No, I don’t” actually feel relieved.” Not in the sense of now things are fixed. Nor that technology has saved me. Nor that we/I can go back to normal, whatever that is. Maybe relieved in that I’ve added another important layer of protection from the coronavirus. But that’s about it.

Pensive is what I am feeling. That it has come to this – a vaccination against a virus that has wreaked havoc across the globe. Not equally, but widely. “What does this mean?” as Martin Luther liked to say. How do we/I make sense of this? – that over two million people have died of Covid19, that millions more have endured it and have long-term effects, that eight billion people need to be vaccinated, because none of us will be safe until all of us are safe. So, pensive is, I think, the best word for now: “expressing thoughtfulness, usually marked by some sadness.” (www.dictionary.com)

Dan Erlander, in his short booklet, Baptized, We Live: Lutheranism as a Way of Life, writes “God meets us most profoundly at the point of our deepest reality – our honest confrontation with weakness, pain, solitude and death.” (page 4). So true. It is the message of Good Friday and Easter Sunday: The God of the Cross meets us most clearly in our moments of greatest human vulnerability, when we realize that we are not invincible and immortal ... that we are frail and delicate. That someday we will die ... pensive.

The same week I got my second shot, George Floyd’s murderer was convicted. We observed Earth Day in the midst of climate change. The three things that worry me and leave me feeling vulnerable - virus, violence, and catastrophe – all three hit me hard in one week, leaving me ... pensive.

It was one of Floyd’s attorneys who said, “The virus has forced us to look at the hard realities of our worlds. Locked in our houses with only our smart phones and big screens, it’s hard to look away.” Pensive.

“I can’t breathe” is what we hear people saying all over the world as they struggle with the virus, the violence, and the climate change. It is what Jesus struggled with on the Cross, until he breathed his last ... pensive.

The theology of the Cross calls us to join Jesus in making small moves against destruction, moves like getting vaccinated, resisting violence, observing Earth Day. Taking every little thing we see, speak, and do one pensive breath at a time.

So, take a deep breath.

Pentecost – and the Breath of the Spirit - is coming.

Pensively yours,

Pr Keith

The Power of Prayer

We have “resurrected” the CLC Prayer Chain. If you or someone you know are in need of prayer, let the office know and we’ll send your requests to our prayer chain members. If you like to pray for others, please contact Pastor Keith about joining the group.

Graduates?

Do you have a child (or are you yourself) graduating from high school, college, or grad school? We would like to acknowledge these achievements in some manner in the next couple of months. Because this has been such a strange school year, we wanted to check with all of you so we don't miss anyone. Please send the name(s) of the grad(s) to the office at office@clcmililani.org as soon as you can. Mahalo for your help in identifying these milestones.

Daytime Book Discussion Group

There has been a suggestion that we start a daytime book discussion group. We would start with Dear Church: a love letter from a black preacher to the whitest denomination in the US by Lenny Duncan. If you would be interested in participating in this group, please contact Pastor Keith (808-281-1050 or pastor@clcmililani.org).

Pentecost

Pentecost Sunday is May 23. This is the day we celebrate the birthday of the church. Be sure to wear RED, in person or on line.

We received word that Mitzi Ludwig died this week. Mitzi is Linda Kohlstaedt's mother. Please keep Linda, Bill, Alex, and all of Mitzi's family and friends in your prayers.

Rest eternal grant to her and may light perpetual shine upon her.

Cell Tower Progress

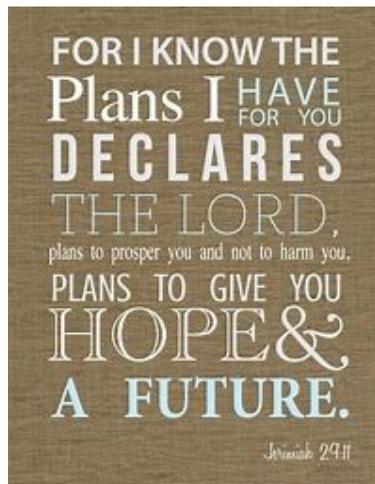

With the poles in the ground and the equipment mounted to the top of the tower, it was time to camouflage the entire “tree.” The photos below show how it was done. There are more pictures of the entire tower installation process, as well as a few videos, on our Facebook page at facebook.com/clcmililani. Be sure to check them out.

CHURCH BULLETIN BLOOPERS

Thank God for church ladies (and men?) with computers. These sentences (with all the BLOOPERS) actually appeared in church bulletins or were announced in church services (these have been around a while but humor in the time of a pandemic is always welcome). This is a partial list. The first group was in the August 2020 newsletter.

The church will host an evening of fine dining, super entertainment and gracious hostility.

The ladies of the Church have cast off clothing of every kind. They may be seen in the basement on Friday afternoon.

This evening at 7 PM there will be a hymn singing in the park across from the Church. Bring a blanket and come prepared to sin.

The pastor would appreciate it if the ladies of the Congregation would lend him their electric girdles for the pancake breakfast next Sunday.

Low Self Esteem Support Group will meet Thursday at 7 PM. Please use the back door.

The eighth-graders will be presenting Shakespeare's Hamlet in the Church basement Friday at 7 PM. The congregation is invited to attend this tragedy.

The Associate Minister unveiled the church's new campaign slogan last Sunday: "I Upped My Pledge - Up Yours ."
