

May, James

James Steven May, 43, of Simpsonville, S.C. and formerly of Elkton, went to be with his Lord and Savior on Monday, July 21, 2003, at his home. James was born in Marlette to Ida (Scribner) May and the late Glen Dale May. He was united in marriage to Laura Anne Jones on Jan. 6, 1996. James attended Kingston High School and later attended Delta College to become a tool and die maker journeyman. He was employed by Tower Industries (formally Active Industries) in Elkton for many years. He worked at Magna Drive Automotive in Piedmont, S.C. for the past two years. James enjoyed playing baseball with his kids, playing cards with his family and listening to The Beatles. He is survived by his wife, Laura Anne May; his children, Kimberly May, of Bad Axe, Amanda Jones, Benjamin May, Brian Hampton, Rebecca Hampton, Glenn May, and Alex Hampton, all of Simpsonville, S.C.; his mother, Ida May, of Deford; sisters, Gloria Clink, of Washington D.C., Margaret Knight, of Creedmoor, N.C., Lorraine Fritz and her husband, Robert, of Caro, Nancy Lawrence and her husband, Ricky, of Kingston, and Jenny May, of Deford; his brothers, Glenn May and his wife, Lucy, of Caro, Dale May and his wife, Christine, of Muskegon; and many nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his father, Glen May, and sister, Carol Wright. A memorial service will be conducted at noon on Saturday, Aug. 9, 2003, at the Elkton Wesleyan Church, 5171 Whalen Street, Elkton. Memorials may be made to the Greenville Cancer Society at 113 Mills Ave. Greenville, S.C. 29605.