

NERGC CONFERENCE INFORMATION

Join fellow FGS members and family historians from around the country at the 2025 New England Regional Genealogical Conference (NERGC). This conference is an outstanding opportunity to hear from genealogy pros on a myriad of interesting and timely topics. We strongly endorse participation in this Conference as a way to enhance your family history research. We look forward to seeing you at NERGC 2025!

The Falmouth Genealogical Society (FGS) is proud to be a founding member of NERGC and FGS members have been active volunteers and participants in its activities.

We provide this information for your convenience. For up-to-date information, visit the NERGC website at: www.NERGC.org.

Contact Tim Martin to inquire about room sharing or carpooling at fgspresident@gmail.com.

WHAT

The theme of the 18th New England Regional Genealogical Conference (NERGC) is New Englanders—Here, There, and Everywhere. Registration is now open. See detailed registration information below or click here: www.NERGC.org

WHEN

Wednesday, October 29 through Saturday, November 1, 2025.

WHERE

DoubleTree by Hilton, 700 Elm Street, Manchester, New Hampshire

CONFERENCE REGISTRATION AND COST

Go to www.NERGC.org to register online where you can pay by credit card. You also can complete the registration form in the conference brochure that is available for download at <https://nergc.org/nergc-program-2025>. You will be able to indicate which of the 71 sessions you want to attend and make your meal choices, as well as any dietary or mobility/hearing/visual needs requests.

Register before September 13 and save! The cost of full registration is $200 on or before September 13 and is $230 on September 14 and after. Online registration closes October 17. Single and two-day registrations are also available at $90 and $160 respectively.

Meals: Meals for Thursday and Friday luncheon are $48 each day. The Friday night banquet is $60. The Saturday luncheon is $50. The Saturday night banquet is $62.

Additional fees: For pre-conference activities, workshops, and special tours.

HOTEL ROOMS

Book now to confirm your room.

The Conference Hotel is the DoubleTree by Hilton, 700 Elm Street, Manchester, New Hampshire. A block of rooms has been reserved at the special group rate of $179/night. We recommend calling the hotel directly to make your reservation: (603) 625-1000.

Go to <https://nergc.org/hotel-2025/> for important information on the hotel block.

PROGRAM AND SPEAKERS

The featured speakers are Annette Burke Lyttle on How Advertising Caused Ancestors to Migrate; Diahan Southard on How DNA Influences our Identity; and Cari Taplin on How Potty Training Helped My Genealogy. To view the full program, click here: <https://nergc.org/nergc-program-2025>.

Join beginners through advanced researchers to learn more about genealogy. This is a wonderful opportunity to meet hundreds of other attendees who share your love of genealogy.

To learn more about NERGC go to www.NERGC.org; visit NERGC on Facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/NERGC/>; visit the NERGC blog at <https://nergc.org/blog/>; visit Twitter (X) @NERGC2025; or to receive a digital newsletter which provides information and updates on NERGC, sign up for the Conference E-zine by filling out the form at: <https://nergc.org/e-zine-sign-up-form/>