

Dear parents and students,

Today we practiced reading the text and vocabularies of Lesson 8. Practiced using the words "常常" and "以後" in sentences. Related exercises are on Workbook pages 25 and 26. A rough understanding of the radicals of Chinese characters.

You will have the following homeworks:

Homework 1. Review the radicals of Chinese characters. Please write the characters in "認讀漢字 Recognizing Chinese Characters" in Lesson 7 and Lesson 8. (On Textbook on page 12, page 28) Each Chinese character repeatedly writes five times and recognizes its radicals.

Homework 2. (This is optional homework) Review sentence patterns. Preview the "句型 Sentence Patterns" of Lesson 8, on Textbook page 29 and page 30.

Enjoy your week, see you soon.
