

Shirley A. Meyer Mullins
April 7, 1932 – December 9, 2025

Shirley was born April 7, 1932 to Max and Nora Meyer at Sturgis, South Dakota. She was raised and attended school there. On November 7, 1948 she married Elvie L. Mullins. To this union two children were born, Patricia and Terry.

The couple traveled extensively – due to his military service, then his employment service. Shirley worked several different jobs during her marriage 20 years in the electronic field, and in several different hospitals. Completing the home health course at the Newcastle Hospital. She worked at an assisted living company as an administrator in Missouri.

She and her husband opened a restaurant “Grandma’s Place” in Osage. Upon losing their lease, she was hired as a cook at the State Veteran’s Home in Hot Springs, South Dakota. Shirley worked there for three years, and then transferred to the Prison at Springfield, South Dakota, retiring from there. She and her husband moved by their grandchildren to Ozark, Missouri, where her husband passed away. She later returned to Upton.

She is survived by her son Terry and wife, six grandchildren, 13 great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, daughter, son in law, two brothers, and six sisters.