Deadline Extended for Outstanding Civics Student "Civics in Action" Award

Do you know a student who has made a difference or an improvement of the quality of life in their school, home, or community through the use of civic engagement?

Help the LCLCE recognize a Louisiana middle or high school student who exemplifies what it means to be an engaged citizen.

The award recipient will be recognized at the Louisiana State Bar Association's Annual Meeting in Sandestin, Florida. The recipient is eligible to receive a complimentary one night stay at the Sandestin resort on June 10, 2010.

Deadline for submissions extended to May 13, 2010. Nomination Form. See more about this award at the LCLCE website.

Teachers

Teachers! Arrangements are now being made for in-class presentations on Constitution Day! Set up your September 17, 2010 Constitution Day activities today. If interested, call or email Program Director Kandis Showalter, 504-566-1600. Enrollment forms can be downloaded here.

In-classroom presentations are made by judges and lawyers who have volunteered to work with students in your area.

Judges and Attorneys

Judges and lawyers interested in participating in the Lawyers in the Classroom/Judges in the Classroom programs, can download the enrollment form here. The LCLCE will attempt to match your interests with one of the classrooms in your area. Once a match is found, the LCLCE will contact you.
