Three clones were harvested to make this delicious Pinot Peterson in 2014, Dijon 115 and 777 as well as some Pommard. All three are represented in our 2014 Peterson Vineyard Pinot Noir.

The very fragrant, spicy nose is typical of this site, along with the delicate palate filled with savory and earthy flavors.

There's also a toastiness in this 2014 Peterson which resulted from the high percentage of new oak Pezzo Morgana is the name of a particular vineyard of alberello (bush vine) enclosed into a perimeter of century-old huge olive trees.

Black licorice, dark chocolate, coffee bean, baked fruit; with brown leather dried fruits, fig, raisins.

RAMEY

WINE CELLARS

As traditionally practiced in Burgundy, Ramey uses an anaerobic approach to preserving the freshness and fruit characteristics of this Pinot Noir. This wine was lightly fined with egg white and bottled without filtration.

Flavors profile red plum and oak blend with notes of black pepper and pomegranate. The finish is dry and its flavors linger nicely.

FALCATA

Falcata is the name of an Iberian sword that the Iberian people (currently Spain and Portugal) used to fight the Romans through the fourth century B.C. This sword was a sign of distinction and was made by the crafters to the measurement of the warrior's arm.

This blend of Garnacha Tintorera, Syrah and Monastrell features oak-laden berry aromas. On the palate, you'll find bold tannins and fine acidity, with plum, wild berry and mixed spice flavors.

UNTI
V I N E Y A R D S

Unti is a true wine estate owned and operated by George and Mick Unti, who are irrationally committed to making European-style wines from Mediterranean grape varieties in Dry Creek Valley.

The chalky/rocky well-drained soils have always produced small berries, resulting in dark and intense wine. There is an unmistakable smoked meat element to wine from this vineyard, à la carte

A La Carte Chardonnay is sourced from cool climate vineyards in California's North Coast wine region and made by hand in our winery custom designed for small lot wines.

A rich, fruit forward Chardonnay that finishes with nice crisp acidity. Flavors of citrus fruits (and citrus peel) with a hint of melon to round it out. Just a touch of oak and vanilla adds to the complexity of the wine
