

The 50 Safest Cities in Georgia

At SafeWise, we know one of the most important decisions you'll ever have to make is where you and your family will live, so we want to help you figure out which cities and towns are the safest and best for you.

After pouring over the most recent FBI Crime in the U.S. Report, we combined those statistics with our own research to bring you a comprehensive list of the 50 safest cities in Georgia with populations of 5,000 or more as of 2012.

#42. St. Marys

St. Marys is located in coastal Georgia as a gateway to Cumberland Island National Seashore, the largest of the Georgia Coast's barrier islands. As a result, St. Marys naturally has an Aquatic Center open in the summer that features a variety of attractions, such as the Splash Mountain water playground, Orange Crush twister water slide, lap pool, and lazy river called The Oasis. This Aquatic Center contributes to St. Marys focus on tourism within the city. For endless and safe water-based fun, you'll love the coastal accommodations of St. Marys. Other Georgia Coast cities include Richmond Hill, Port Wentworth, Pooler and Kingsland.
