Dear Families,

Today we celebrated the start of our basketball and cheering seasons with a Sports Pep Rally for the entire school at the Sacred Heart Church Hall. It was loads of fun for everyone. Players and cheerleaders were able to showcase their skills, while the faculty and coaches showed that they have “game” too (well, not me for sure!). Mrs. Fay demonstrated fantastic ball skills while Mrs. B. was a standout as she led the faculty in a cheer! The rally concluded with Mr. Paulhus, our Athletic Director, handing out the traditional athletic jackets to our eighth-grade players.

As you are already aware, we will celebrate Thanksgiving with our Thanksgiving Mass on Monday at noon at St. Louis Church. All are welcome to attend. Student Council and Grade 1 will celebrate Thanksgiving with a flapjack breakfast and activities on Tuesday morning.

There is no school Wednesday – Friday (11/27-29) due to Thanksgiving break. However, Advent begins next week. All Saints Academy will once again host an Advent Wreath Lighting ceremony throughout the season, beginning Saturday, November 30 at 5:15pm. Please see the VE for more detail, and consider joining us to lead one of the prayers.

Please show your school pride and come out to cheer on our Knights tonight as our girls and boys play at Trinity!

Have a wonderful weekend.

Go Knights!

Yours in Christ,

Joan E. Matys
