Biography

Joyce M. Deering, 83, of Cass City died Monday, June 5, 2023 in Timberline Lodge, Caro. She was born April 12, 1940 in Kinde to Ernest Felix and Bernice (Lemaway) Herbert. She married Raymond Conrad Deering on February 10, 1962 in St. Roch Church, Our Lady of Perpetual Help Parish of Caseville. He died December 14, 1989. Joyce was a faithful follower of her Lord, and a member of the Catholic church, her entire life. She loved to play music and sing. Joyce wrote poems and songs to share with everyone. Along with her family and friends, she served as a Prayer Warrior. Over the years, Joyce cared for many children and family members. During the summers, she camped and had picnics. She enjoyed time around the campfire telling funny stories of her life and catching up. Joyce loved being with her family and friends, or talking on the phone so she wouldn't lose touch. She always wore the biggest smile on her face, and on her heart, when the grandkids came to visit.
