

BLUE & WHITE POTTERY CLUB

CONVENTION SEMINAR
2014

WELCOME TO THE WHITE HALL SEMINAR

East Peoria, Illinois

1:00 PM

Friday, June 6, 2014

GREG MATHIS

THE

5

W's

What,
Who,
Where,
When,
and Why.

What.....is this item?

Who.....made it?

Where...was it made?

When.....was it made?

and Why..was it made?

EXAMPLE

PART I

THE WHITE HALL,
GREENE COUNTY, ILL.
POTTERY CENTER

Just a few important historic details about early White Hall potters:

White Hall's EARLIEST POTTERS were:

William Heath 1826 - 1833

John Neff Ebey 1833

And many start-ups came to follow by the 1850s.

these include:

August Pierce & Co. Pottery

John Shaw & Co. Stoneware Factory

John King Pottery

White Hall Tile Factory

M. C. Purdy Pottery

White Hall Fire Clay Works

P. J. McGowan Pottery

Ruckle's Pottery

Hill & Prindle Pottery

POTTERIES

CLAY CITY LABORERS

THE DINKY RAIL AND CLAY MINING WORKERS

THE PLANT WORKERS

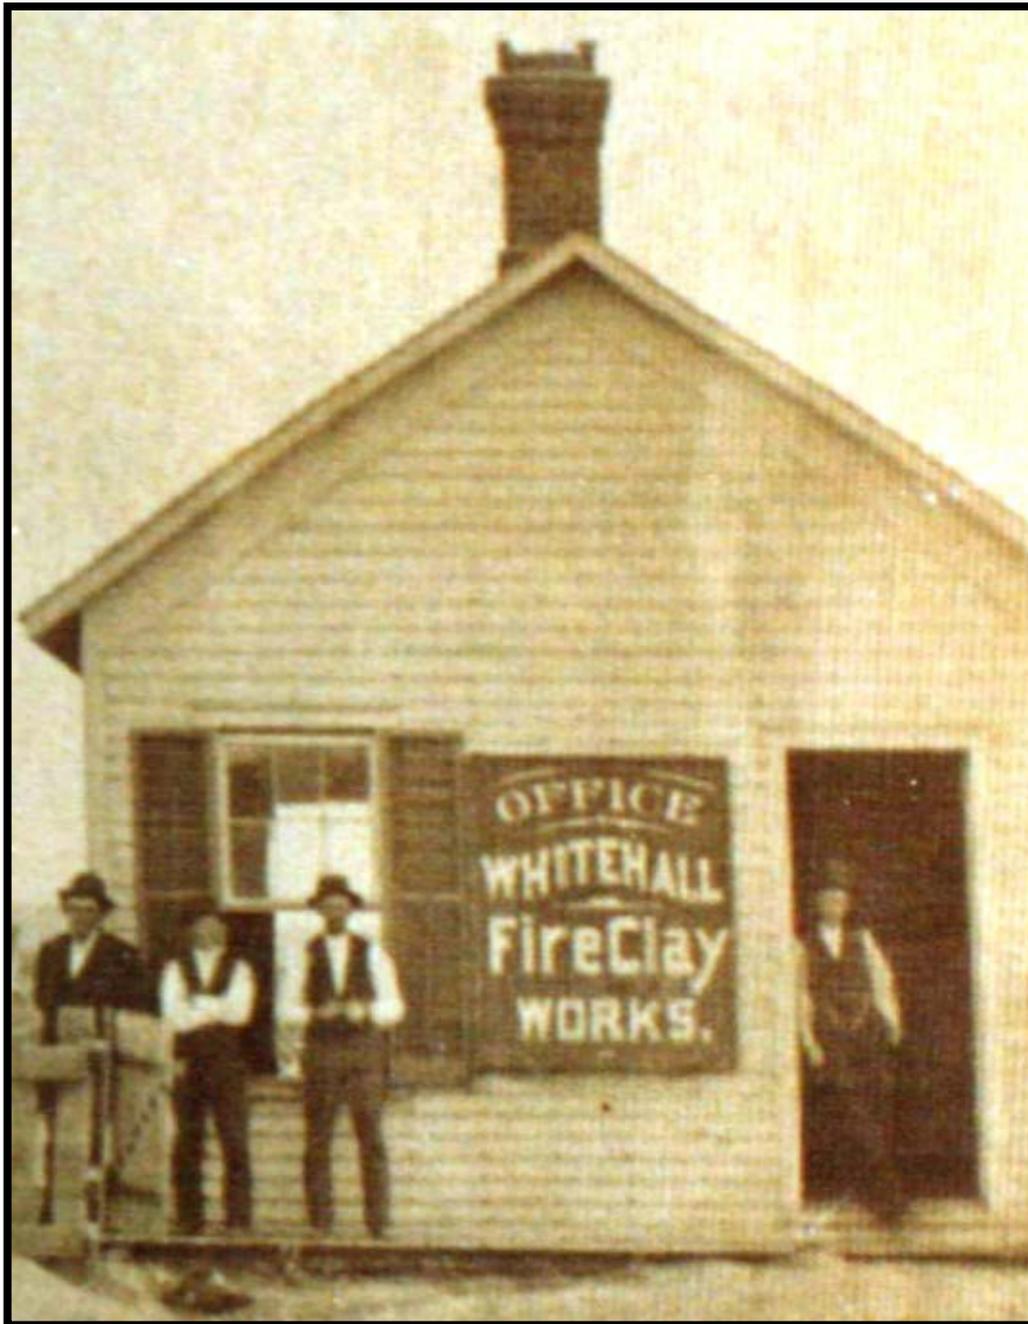

RUCKLES

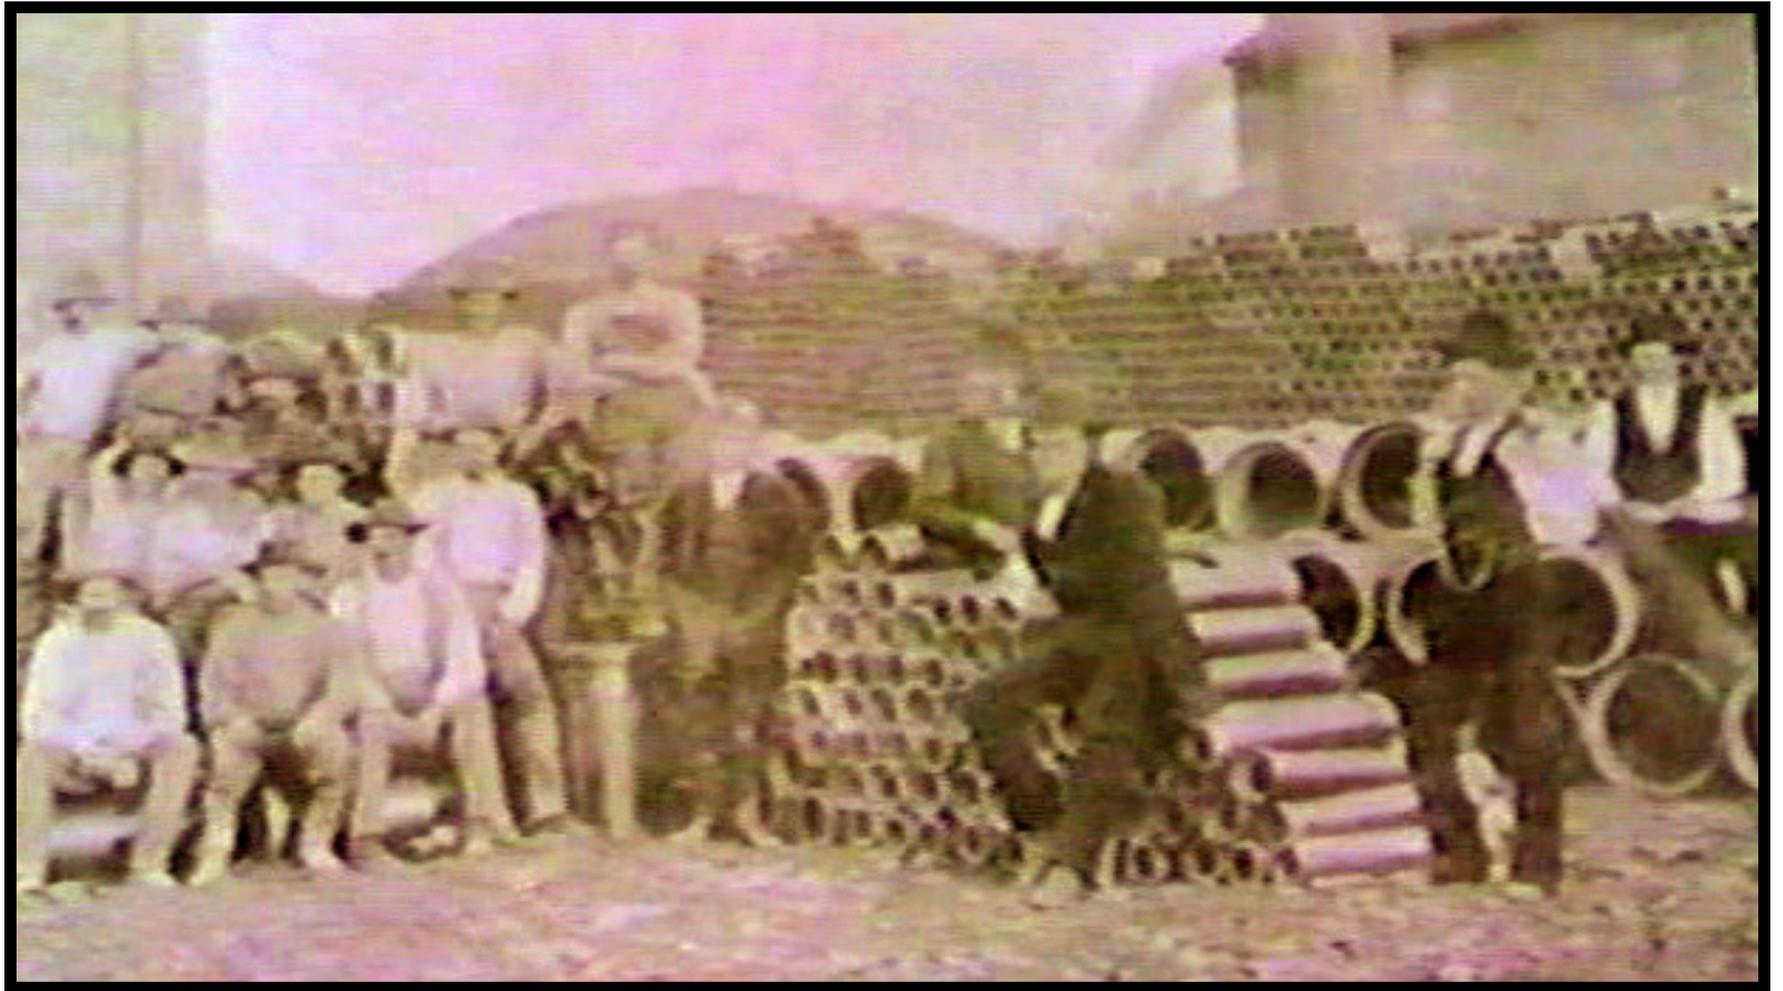

THE BIG SHOP

THE OFFICE WORKERS

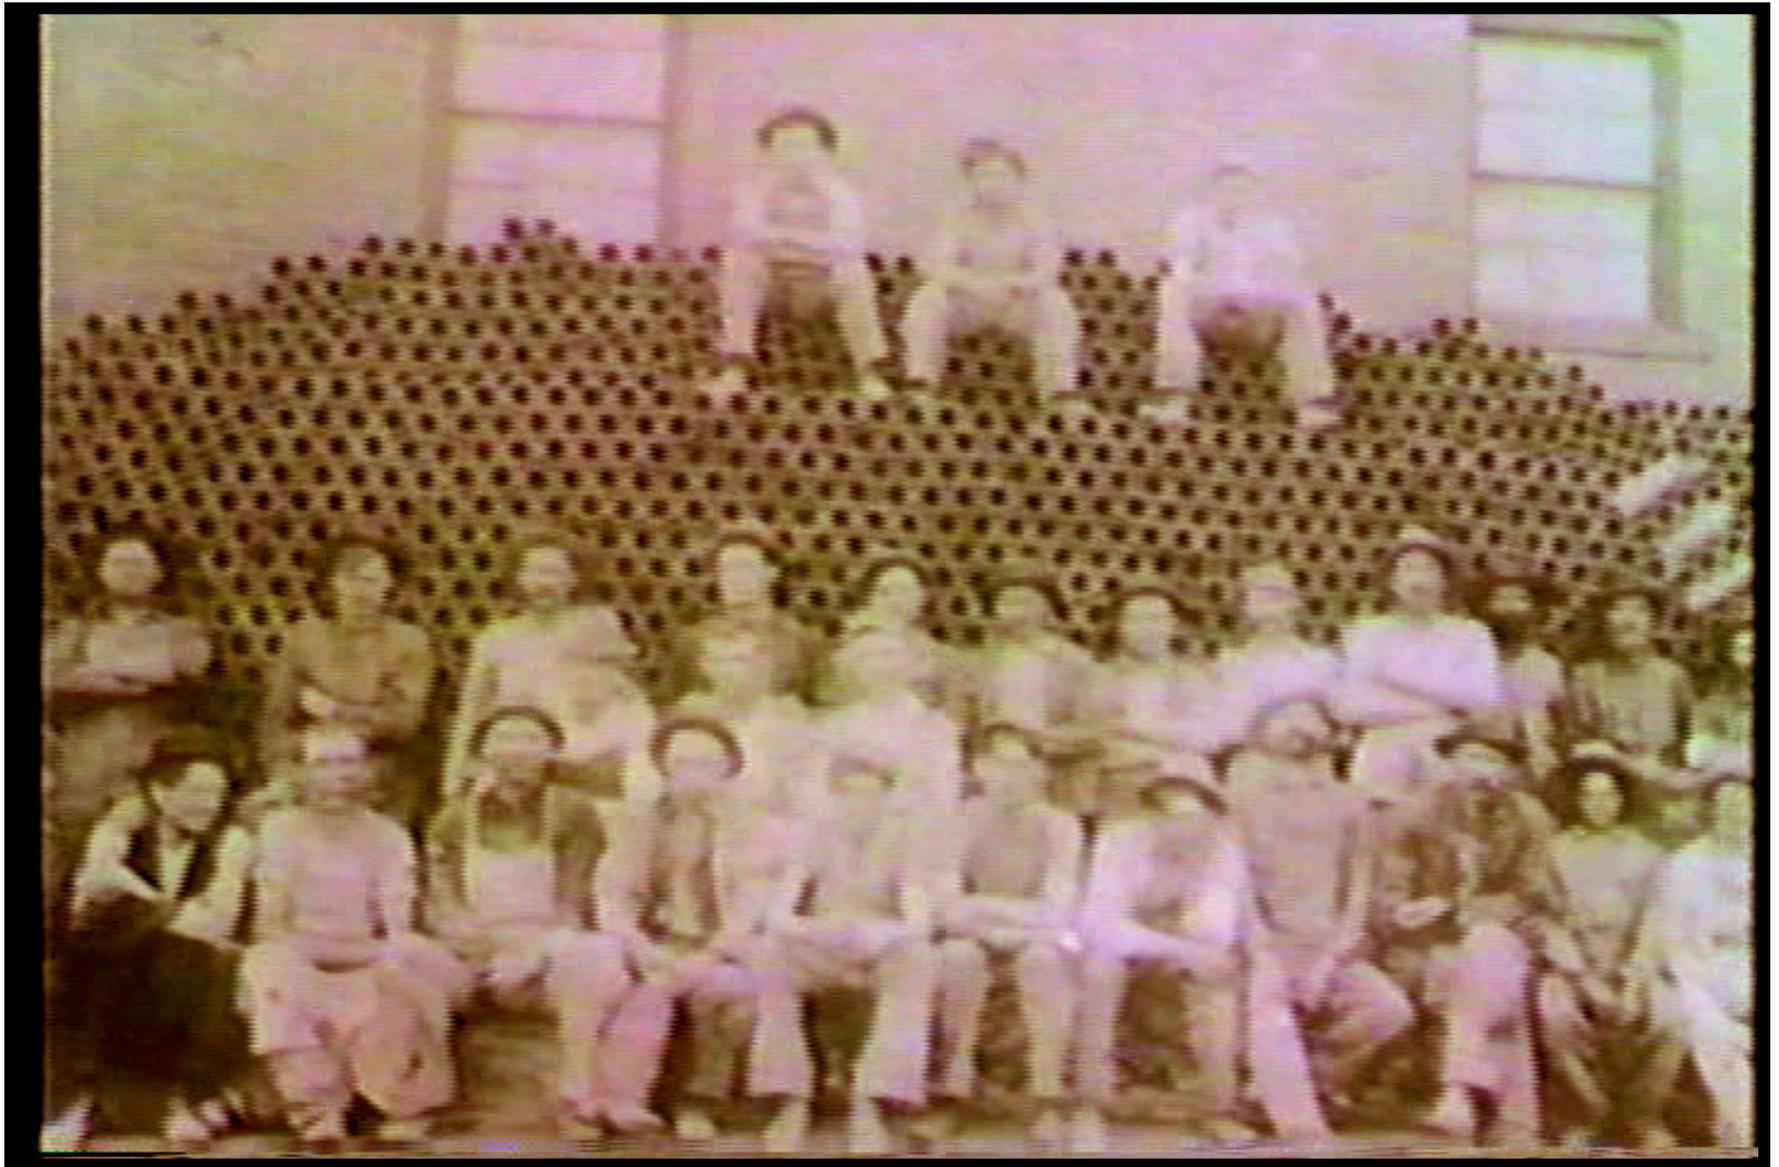

OFFICE OF WHITE HALL FIRE CLAY WORKS cc: 1880

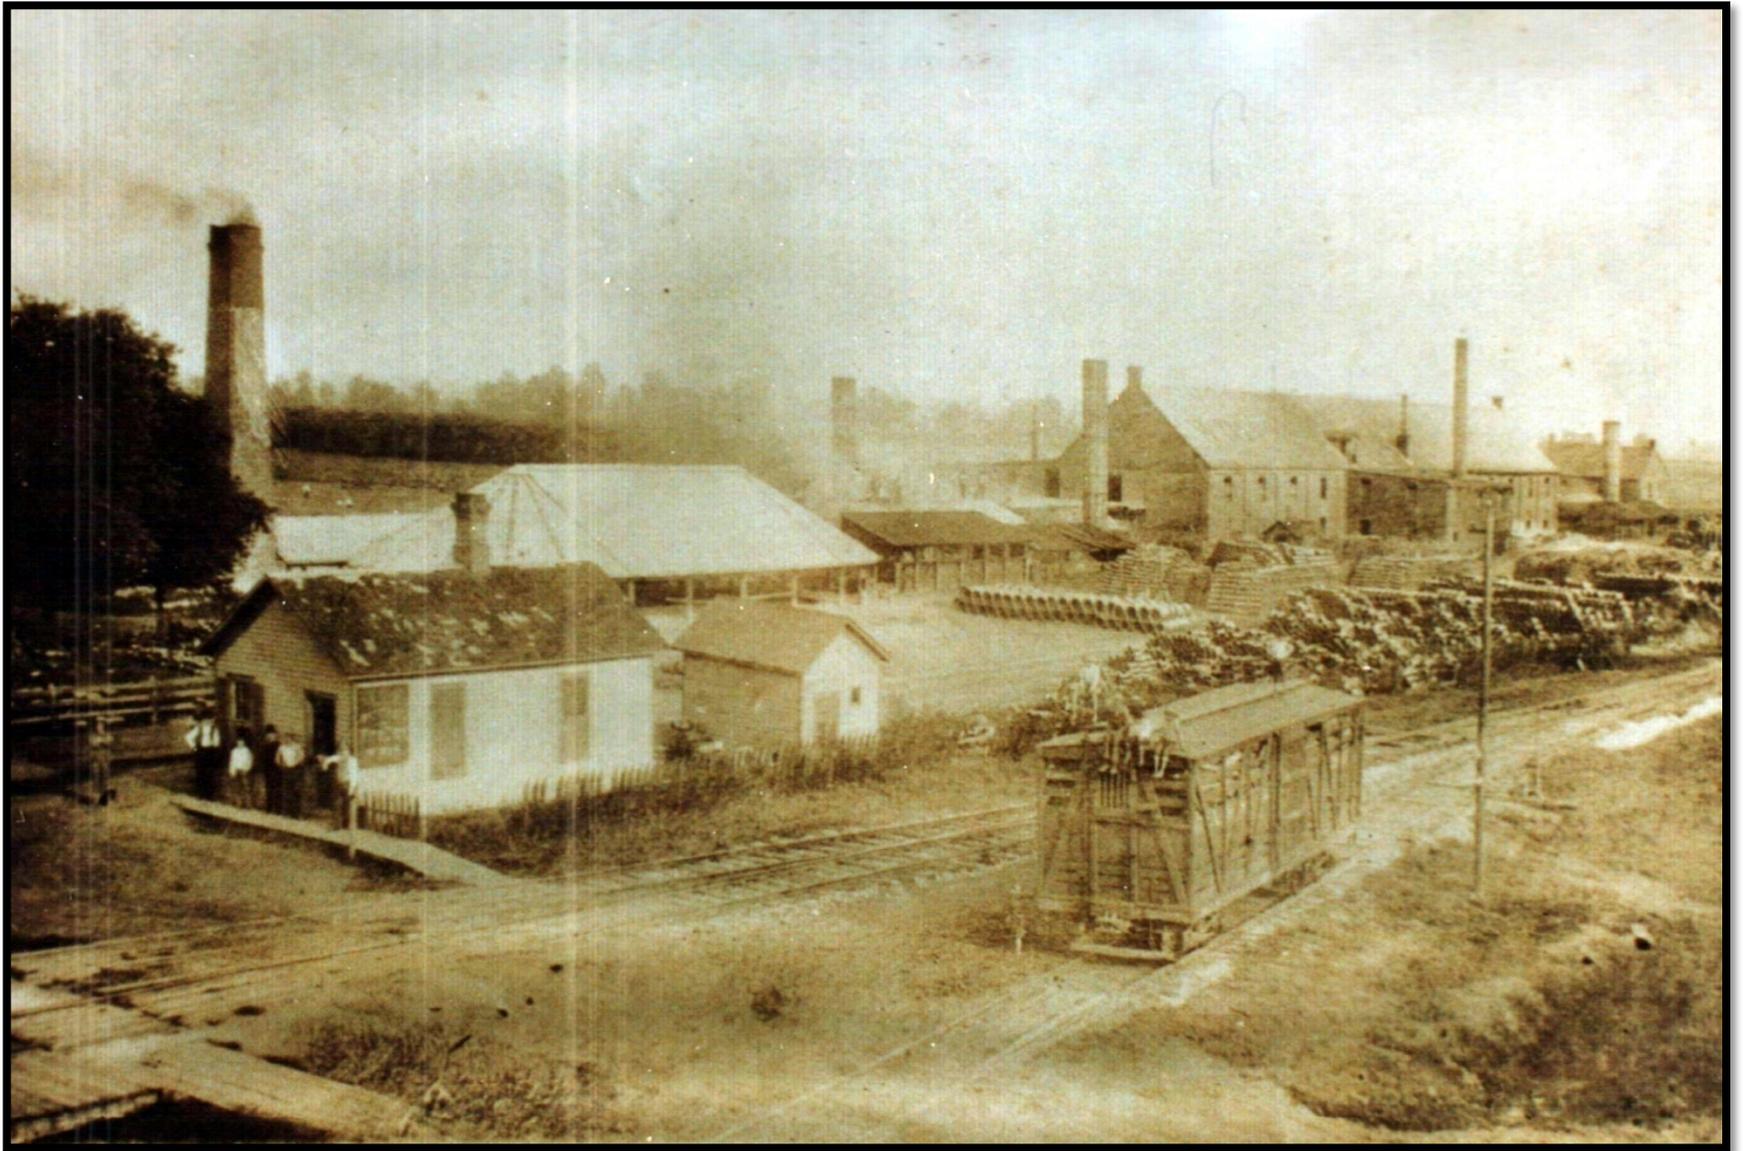

OWNER A.A. ARNOLD

THE CULBERTSON STONEWARE COMPANY BECAME PLANT 5 OF WSC

D. Culbertson Stoneware Co.

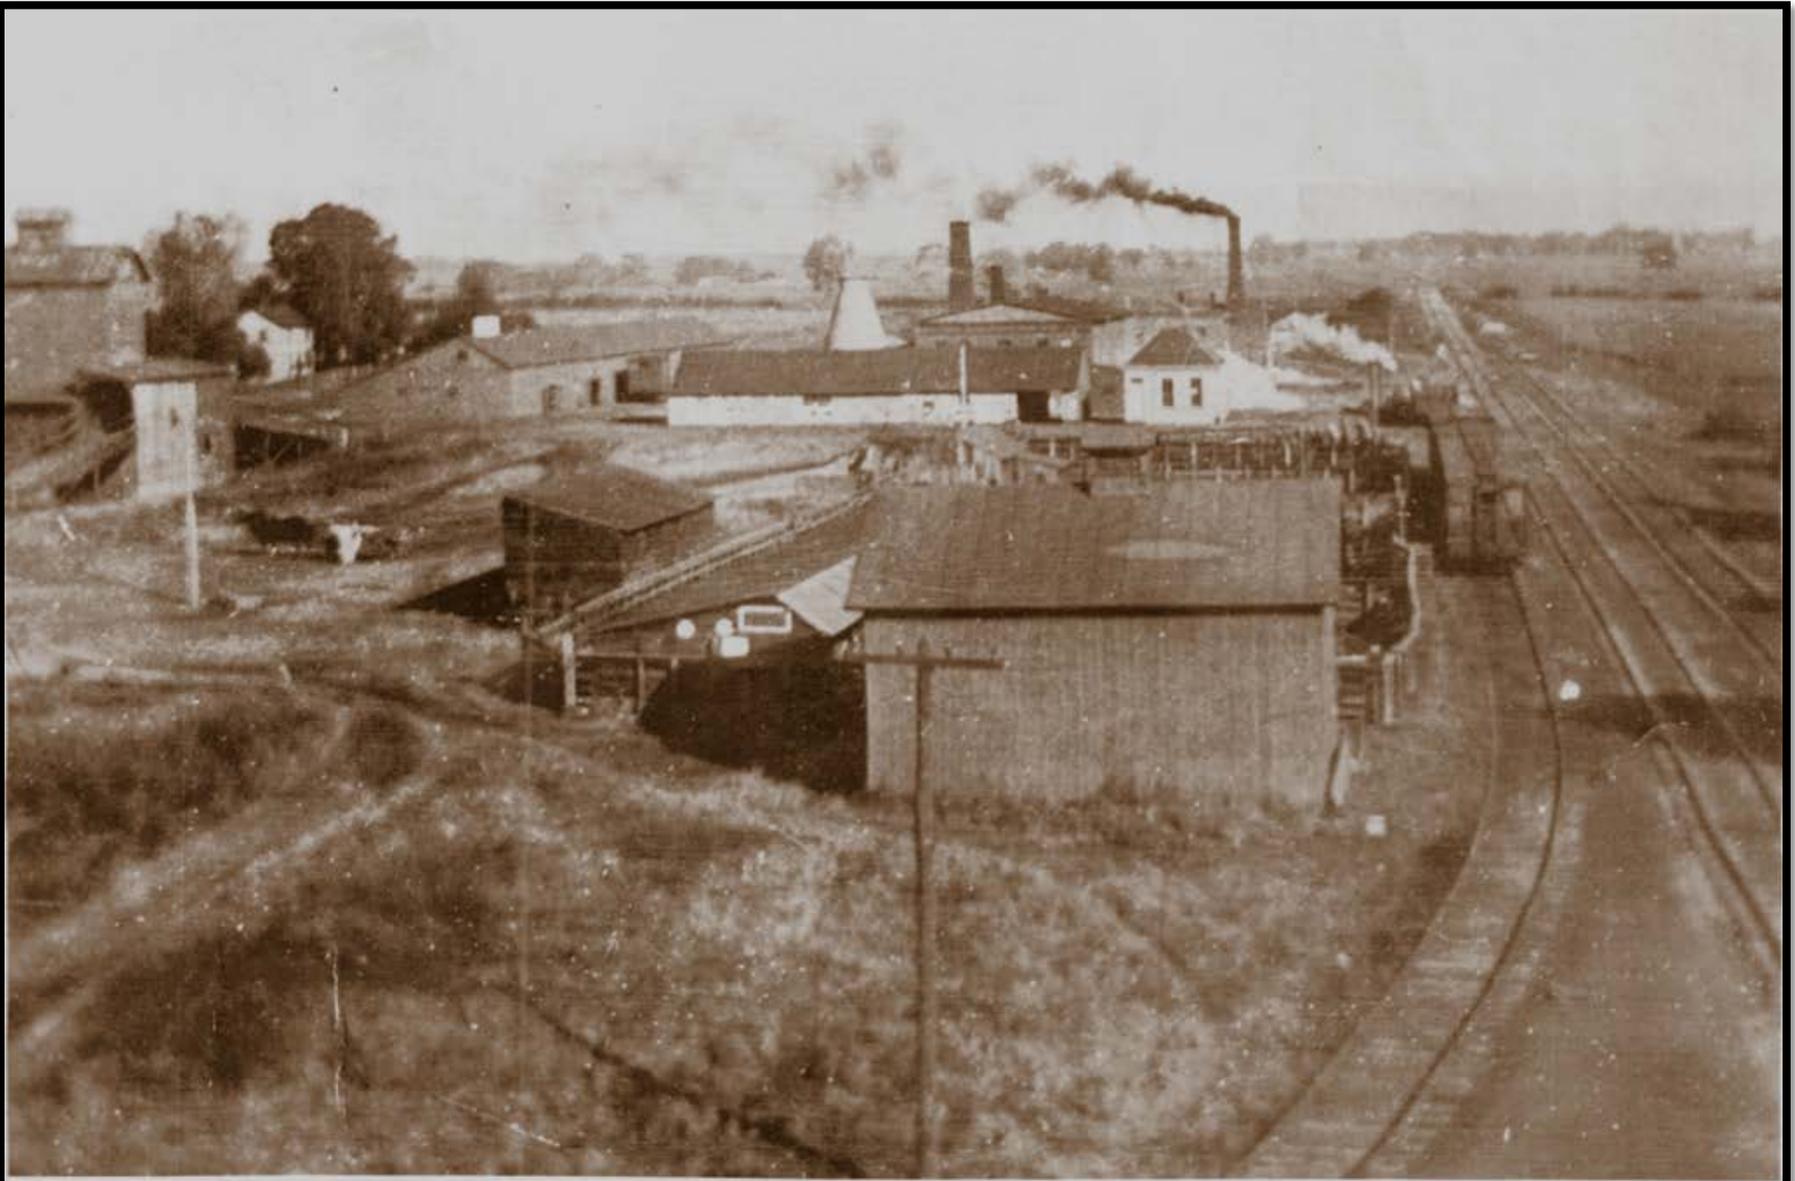

Manufacturers of First Class

WHITE GLAZED STONWARE

And Dealers in Best Grades of

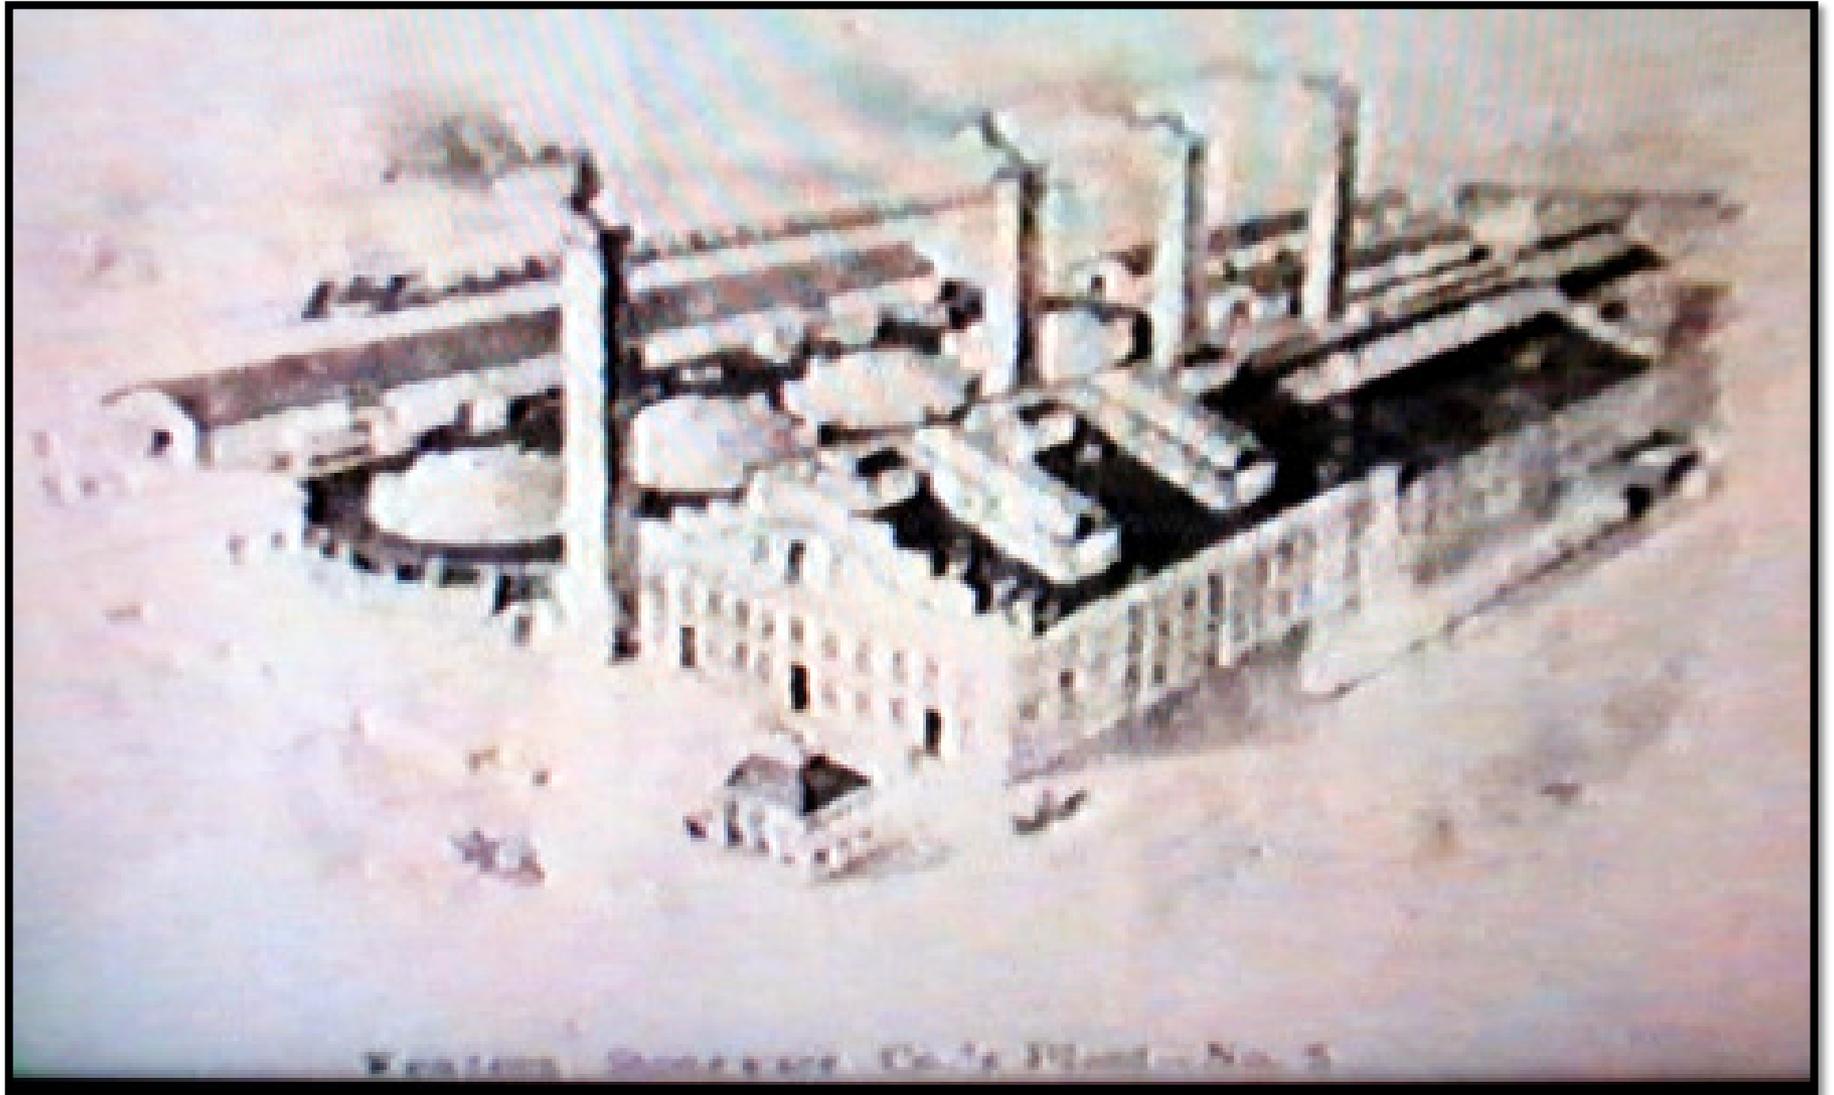

Anthracite and Bituminous Coal

The Culbertson Stoneware Plant in White Hall, Illinois.
In 1906 it became Plant 5 of the Western Stoneware Company. Photo taken sometime before this date.

PLANT 5

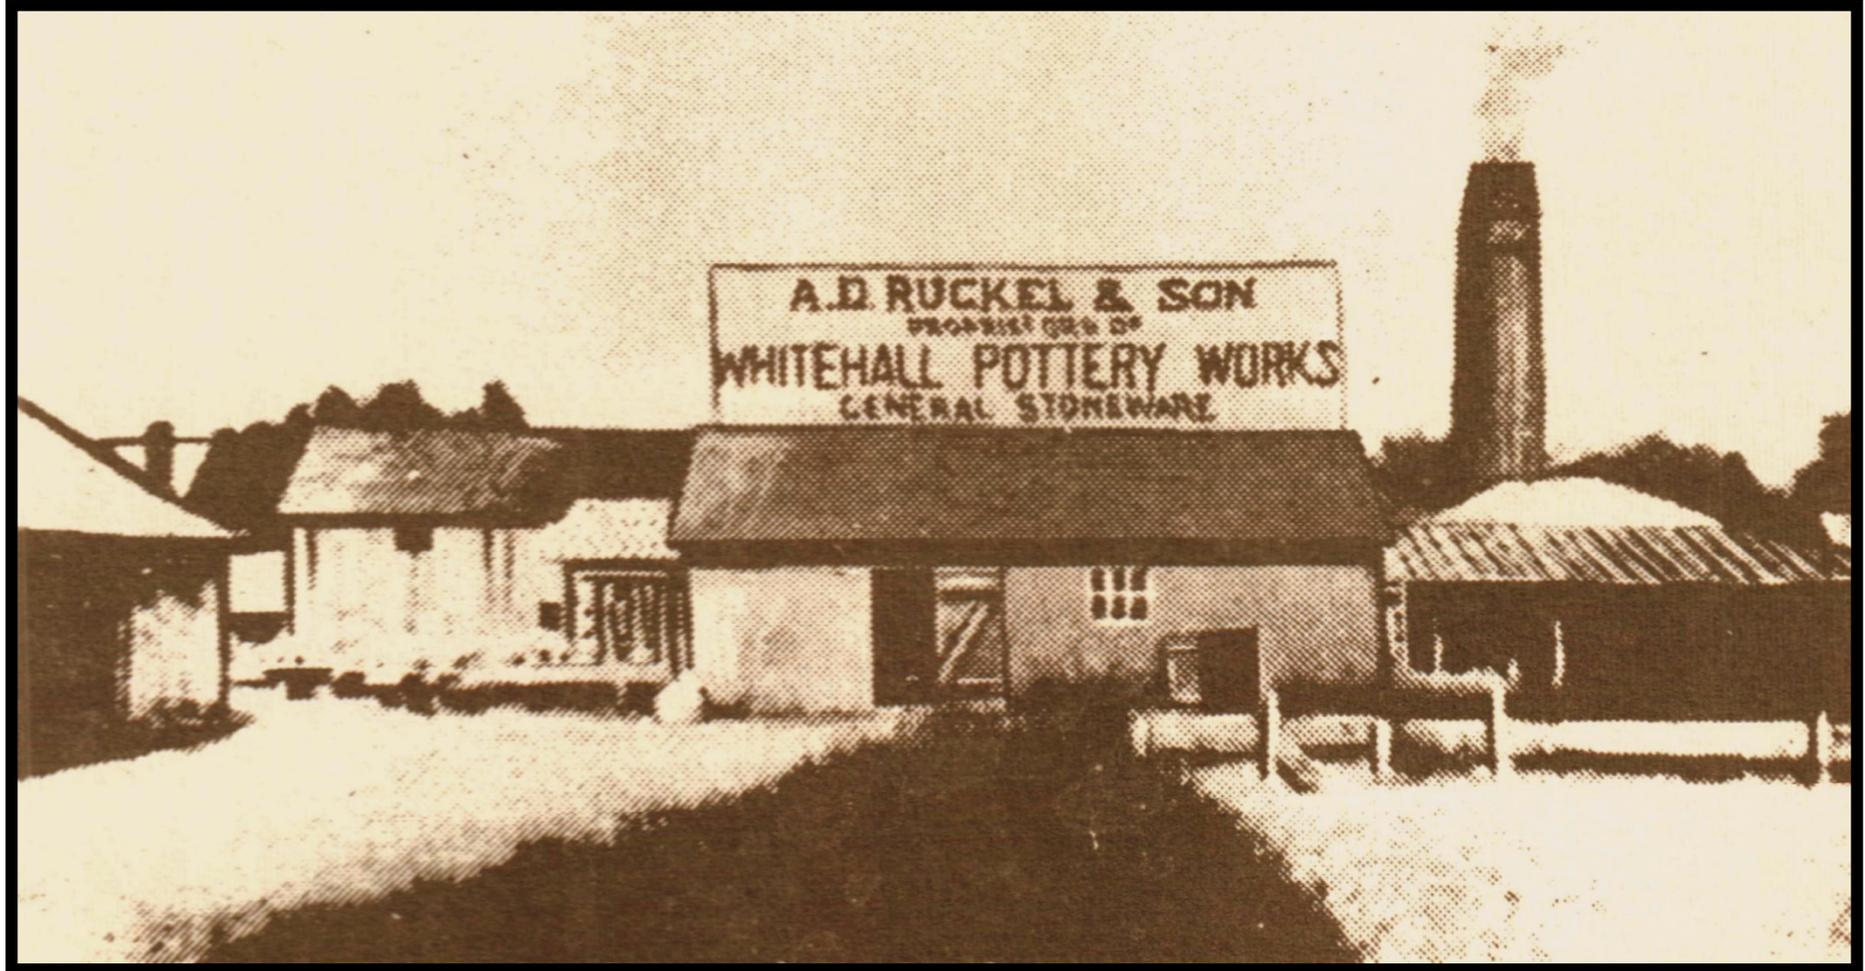

Western, Oklahoma, Co. Ia. Ruins - No. 5

WHITE HALL POTTERY WORKS

A. D. RUCKEL POTTERY

White Hall Sewer Pipe and Stoneware Co.,
White Hall, Ill.

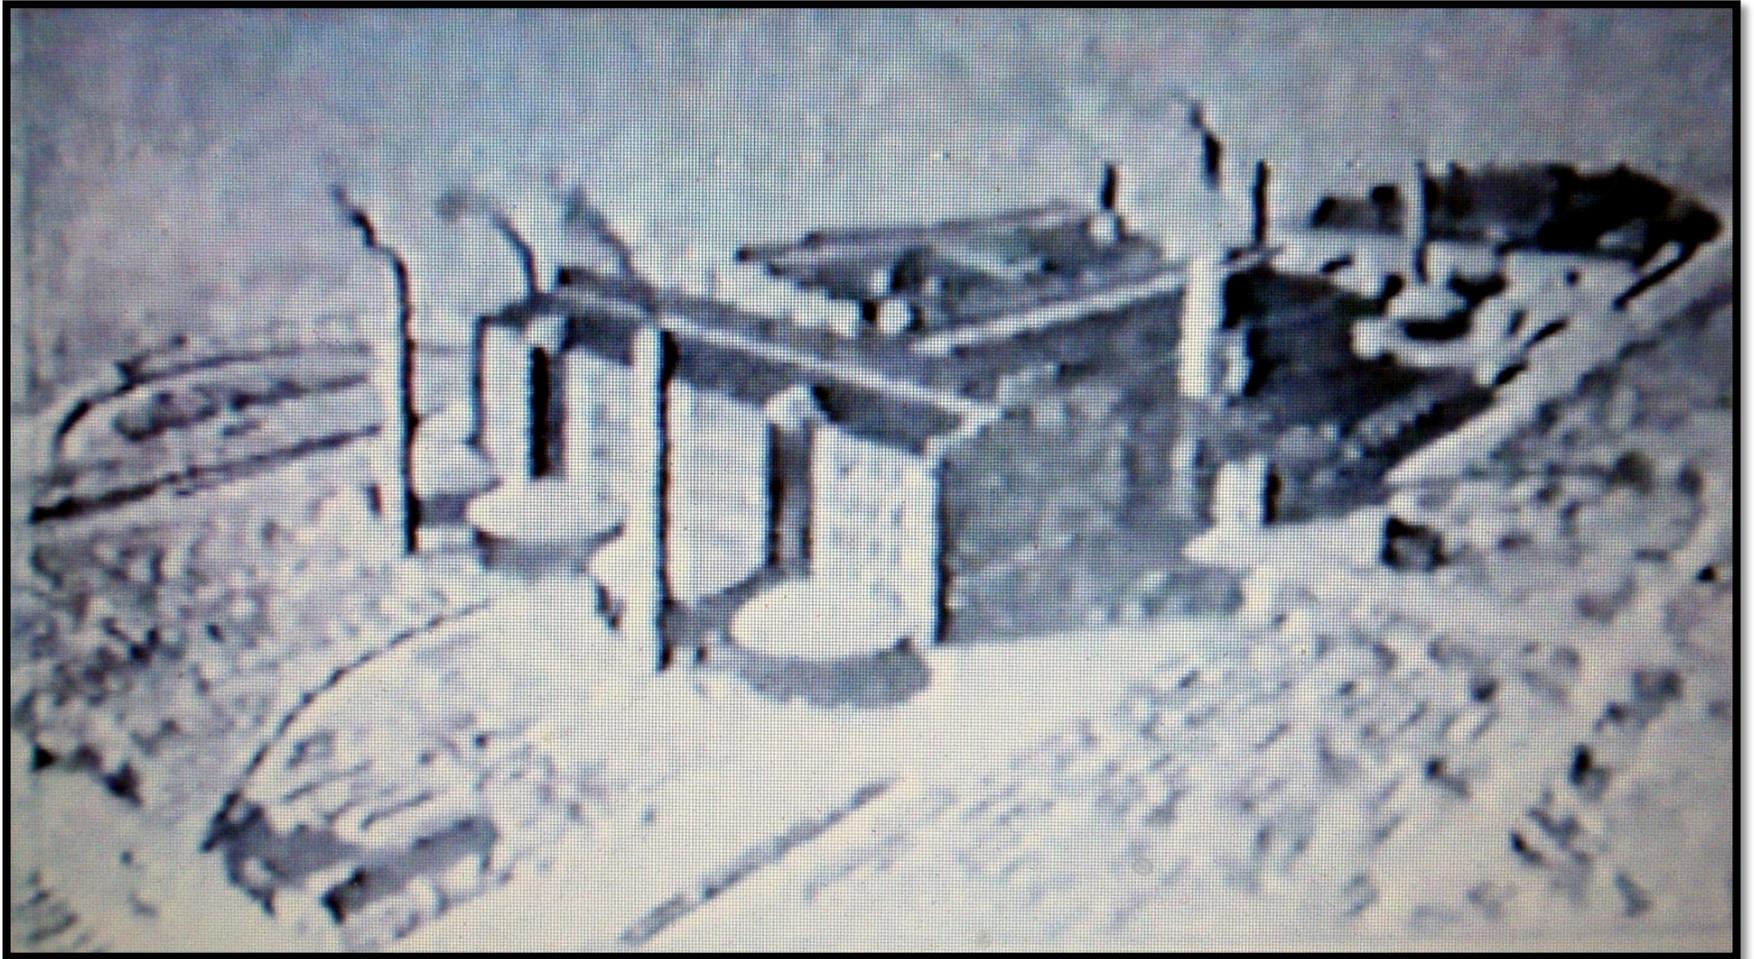

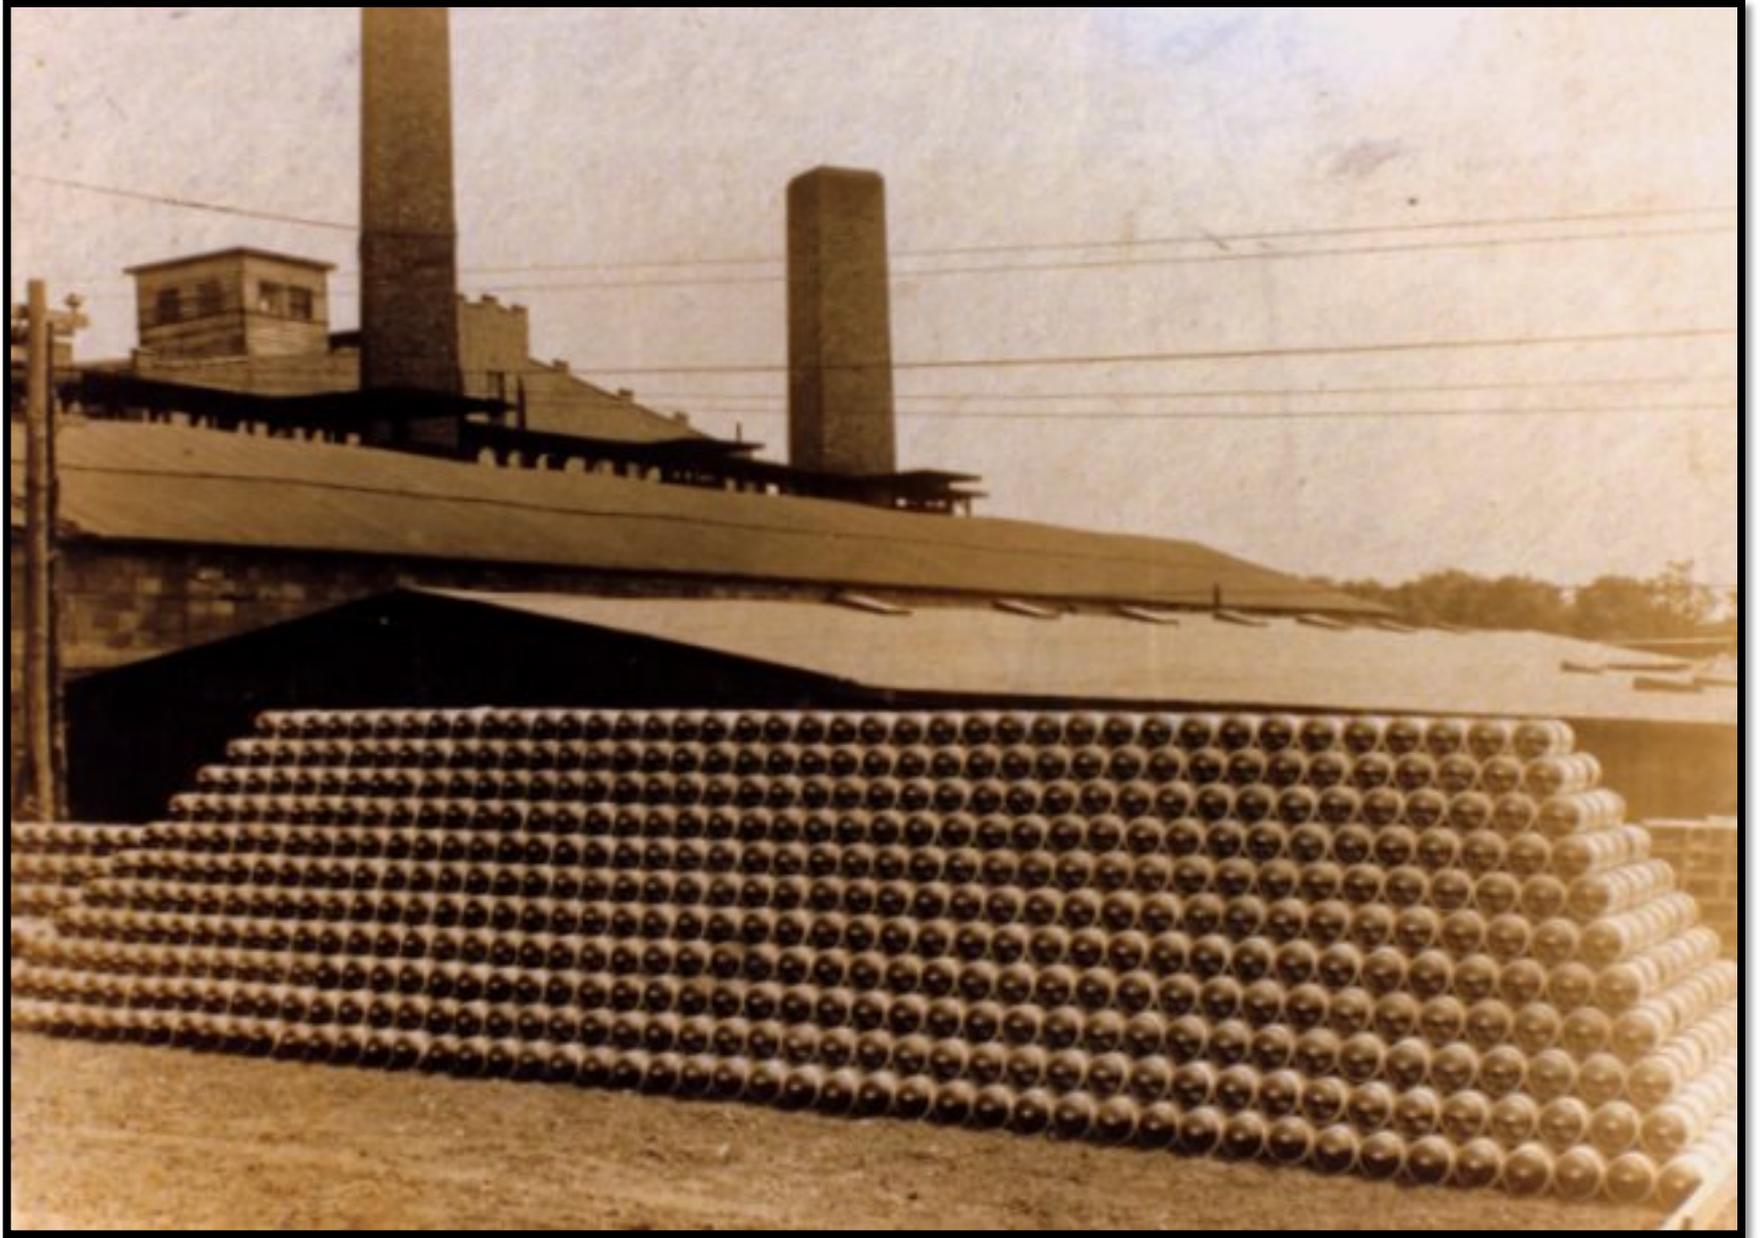

PHOTO
N. Z. 1947

A MOUNTAIN OF 2300 TWO GALLON JUGS