

Workman, Lillian

Lillian B. Workman, 87, died June 5, 2002, in Napa, Calif. following a long illness. Formerly of Deckerville, Lillian was born on April 20, 1915, to the late John and Bertha (Somerville) Young. She was the wife of the late Aubrey R. Workman. Lillian was a graduate of what is now Eastern Michigan University. She retired in 1976 after teaching for many years in the Deckerville Community Schools. She was a member of the Sanilac County chapter of Retired Michigan School Personnel and Delta Kappa Gamma, educational honorary. She was a longtime member of the Deckerville United Methodist Church and the United Methodist Women. She is survived by two daughters, Catharine M. Hazen and her husband, Bruce, of White Lake and Marjorie Dixon and her husband, Peter E., of Yountville, Calif.; three sisters, Doris Scott and Violet Parrott of Deckerville and Mildred Hamm of Americus, Ga.; four grandchildren, John Hazen and his wife, Denise, Thomas Dixon and his wife, Erin, of California, Susan Raunegger and her husband, Michael, of Austria and Sara Hazen and her husband, John Gibbs, of Michigan; five great-grandchildren, Maxwell and Andreas Raunegger of Austria. Hannah and Harrison Hazen and Georgia Dixon of California; several nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by three sisters, Bessie Brabant, Evelyn Jones and Selma Young. The funeral service will be at 1 p.m. Wednesday, June 12, 2002, at the Deckerville United Methodist Church with the Rev. Dr. Dale M. Miller officiating. Interment will be in Downing Cemetery. Pallbearers will be her grandsons and nephews. Visitation is from 2 to 5 p.m. and from 7 to 9 p.m. Tuesday at the Apsey Funeral Home in Deckerville. Memorials may be made to the Deckerville United Methodist Church or the Deckerville Education Foundation.