About Camp Arrah Wana (CAW)

A non-profit camp, conference and event center committed to "providing a beautiful, peaceful, and safe environment where people can experience the transforming power of love and find support through positive relationships and activities."

- ~ More than 50 diverse groups call CAW home: public & private schools, community programs, non-profit resource centers, family & cultural gatherings, church camps, weddings, worldwide service conferences, etc.
- ~ Located on 120 acres of breathtaking forest land at the base of Mt. Hood, Oregon
- ~ Our work provides a source of hope and respite in a world where these things can be difficult to find
- ~ Started in 1941 and serves over 7,000 guests every year
- ~ We also lead faith-based summer & winter youth & family programs where generations of campers have found long-lasting relationships and life-changing experiences for over 78 years

Generations of Promise

We are in the process of raising funds for both capital improvements and strategic operating elements focused on ensuring CAW remains impactful for another 75 years. Meeting our fundraising goals will make it possible for us to host more people, continue offering spectacular services at a reduced rate, and broaden the scope of our community impact.

- ~ Our goal is to raise $1.7M - We're over halfway there with contributions of over $1M from individuals, businesses, & churches
- ~ This has made it possible for us to: modernize 2nd floor of historic Arrah Wana lodge; purchase a vehicle and utility tractor; add a full-time Program & Marketing Director; set funds aside for an endowment and next projects.
- ~ Next projects include: remodel of Judson Lodge and its bathrooms; addition of on-camp staff home & update of 3 others; re-enforce historic Arrah Wana Lodge foundation; construct climbing wall in gym & add elements to High Ropes Course; build outdoor covered area; add year-round staff positions to support this growth, etc.
- ~ If we reach our second-phase goal of $3.6 million, then ALL of these things, and more, will be attainable!
