Mark 16:1-8

Nicole Steiner

When the sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, so that they might go and anoint him. And very early on the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they went to the tomb. They had been saying to one another, “Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?” When they looked up, they saw that the stone, which was very large, had already been rolled back. As they entered the tomb, they saw a young man, dressed in a white robe, sitting on the right side; and they were alarmed. But he said to them, “Do not be alarmed; you are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has been raised; he is not here. Look, there is the place they laid him. But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him, just as he told you.” So they went out and fled from the tomb, for terror and amazement had seized them; and they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

Lord’s Prayer

God, who cares for us, the wonder of your presence fills us with awe. Your name, your very nature, is holy. All creation resonates with it! Let all people come to proclaim it! May we move into your presence and unimpeded love. Let not our ways, but your ways and purposes be fulfilled in our lives here on Earth. Give us the material things you know we need to survive. Release us – as indeed we release others – from the debt of wrongdoing. Strengthen us for difficult times. Liberate us from all that is evil. For you show forth your love, power and glory from the beginning of time and forever more. Amen.
