

As I was praying about today's post I felt led to encourage you. Whatever happened yesterday is behind you, and today you have the opportunity to believe God anew. Today's a new day, a chance for a new start. Yesterday is gone and with it any regrets, mistakes, or failures. Let Him bring you into your new day today!

Today is a new day of fresh possibilities. Every morning brings a new day and new opportunities your way. Until you let go of what's behind you (yesterday) - - you cannot go forward.

Philippians 3:12, "Brethren, I do not count myself to have apprehended; but one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead."

Heavenly Father,

O God, here I am in Your presence this new day. I thank you for my past—its joys and challenges. But help me not to live there. Today I embrace the new day. I embrace Your Word that today is a new day. By your grace and strength, I can say Past- that's exactly what you are! Past.

Lord, I am responsible for how I respond today. Today is a new day. By the Blood of your Son and with the help of Holy Spirit, I will not be enslaved to things in my past. I bow my knee to You alone and call out for forgiveness. I ask You to fill me with the hope of a new day. Lord, I release and surrender all memories, feelings, vain imaginations, fears or weaknesses that try to keep me in the past and I willingly step into this new day with You! As I start each day, help me remember that I belong to you, and that each day is a new day in You. In Jesus name."
