Biography

Wallace L. Warner (A.K.A Wally or Bill) age 94 of Elkton passed away on Saturday, December 2, 2023, at United Hospice Service with his family by his side. Wallace was born on August 15, 1929, son of late William and Rosetta (Peter) Warner. He married Leona Soule on October 27, 1956, in Ubly. He served in the U.S. Army during the Korean War. After serving his country, he went to work for Active Industries, where he worked for 40 years until retiring in February 1995. Wallace played baseball and enjoyed listening to baseball on the radio before it was televised. He loved umpiring, talking about and watching baseball. He was a huge country music fan. He attended many concerts with his wife and daughter, including the Grand Ole Opry. He loved taking walks, spending time with his wife, Leona and his grandchildren. He was a lifelong member of Our Savior Lutheran Church in Bad Axe.
